EXECUTIVE BIOGRAPHIES

BOB NUTTING

Chairman of the Board

Robert (Bob) Nutting serves as Chairman of the Board of the Pittsburgh Pirates. Bob assumed control of the club in 2007, thus becoming the sixth principal owner in the history of the Pittsburgh Pirates. He has served as Chairman of the Board and represented his family's interest in the club since 2003.

Throughout his ownership, Nutting has continued the consistent focus of improving the Pirates entire operation, investing in enhanced infrastructure and building a championship organization.

Nutting's tenure has included the construction of the Pirates training academy in the Dominican Republic, the efforts to rebuild Pirate City, the Pirates Spring Training complex in Bradenton, Florida, and the purchase of a Florida State League franchise, the Bradenton Marauders.

The Pirates have been the most aggressive team in Major League Baseball in investing and acquiring talent through the Amateur Draft under Nutting's leadership. In addition, the Pirates have also significantly increased their focus on infusing their system with top international talent.

In 2011, the Pirates hired manager Clint Hurdle to inject a new attitude in the clubhouse while the hard work and player development over the first few years of his ownership began to make a positive impact on the Major League level.

Off the field, Nutting has demonstrated his commitment to ensure that Pittsburgh remains home to "The Best Ballpark in America" by enhancing and promoting the family friendly environment at PNC Park. The Pirates have also made numerous upgrades to the fan experience, including the addition of the upscale amenities that are open to all fans in the Trib Total Media Hall of Fame Club and Budweiser Bowtie Bar, as well as the exclusive Club Cambria.

Nutting's family roots in the greater Pittsburgh region date back as long as the Pirates 125-year history. His dedication to giving back to the community in every aspect of his life has brought a newfound philanthropic commitment to the organization. In 2011, the Pirates and Pirates Charities, the Club's official philanthropic arm, supported more than 3,000 community organizations.

Since its inception in 2006, Nutting has led Pirates Charities in making an even deeper positive impact in the community by being actively engaged in a number of community projects. This engagement has been critical in the construction of five Miracle League fields, the building of the Pirates Community Baseball Center and the continued widespread impact of the Fields for Kids program that assists in improvements to youth baseball and softball fields throughout the region.

Nutting brings a long history of building successful organizations and a multi-generational commitment to the economic growth in the Pittsburgh region. He also serves as President and CEO of Ogden Newspapers, Inc., and Chairman of Seven Springs Mountain Resort.

NEAL HUNTINGTON

Senior Vice President & General Manager

Neal Huntington was named Senior Vice President and General Manager of the Pittsburgh Pirates on September 25, 2007, thus becoming the 12th G.M. in the history of the club. In this role, he is responsible for the entire baseball operations department which includes overseeing the Major League club and scouting and player development systems.

Huntington and his staff have systematically restructured how the Pirates evaluate, acquire, develop and retain players and staff members with the goal of building the Pirates into a championship caliber organization. Neal has overseen the rebuilding and reconfiguration of the Pirates front office, scouting and coaching staffs as well as the retooling of the Pirates 40 man roster and minor league system. Additionally, the Pirates have allocated significant resources into the First Year Player Draft (most in MLB since 2008) and toward International amateur talent acquisition which has resulted in the Pirates Farm System moving from being one of the worst in MLB to among the top third in baseball.

Prior to joining the Pirates, Neal worked as a Special Assistant to the General Manager for the 2007 American League Central Division champion Cleveland Indians. In his role as Special Assistant to the General Manager, Huntington served as an evaluator and advisor for Cleveland General Manager Mark Shapiro, providing recommendations regarding personnel, strategic planning and decision making. Neal also scouted major and minor league players and provided recommendations with respect to player evaluation, acquisition and retention. He also provided scouting evaluations on players within the Indians organization while doing advance scouting work for a portion of the Indians' opponents.

Huntington began his association with the Indians in 1998 as the Assistant Director of Minor League operations. In November of 1998, Neal took over as Cleveland's Director of Player Development. In that role he instilled a holistic developmental philosophy that focused on the systematic development of the person as well as the player. He also oversaw the Indians player development system, including Latin American Field Operations. After being promoted to the title of Assistant General Manager on November 1, 2001, Huntington assisted Shapiro in all areas of the day-to-day operation of the major league club, concentrating particularly in player evaluation, acquisition and retention.

Neal began his major league career in the Montreal Expos organization on June 1, 1992. He spent the 1994 campaign as the video advance scout for the Expos major league club and was then promoted to Assistant Director, Player Development after the 1994 season, where he assisted in all aspects of Montreal's Player Development system.

PERSONAL: Neal Alden Huntington...Born on 2/4/69 in Amherst, NH...Wife's name is Becca...Has two sons and one daughter...Was raised on a family-owned and operated dairy farm in Amherst...Played four years of baseball at Amherst College in Massachusetts, where he graduated in 1991 with a degree in Psychology...Was named a Division III second-team All-American first baseman and first-team All New England first baseman after his senior season...Also holds a Masters of Science in Sport Management from the University of Massachusetts at Amherst.

JIM PLAKE

Executive Vice President & Chief Financial Officer

After serving the club as Senior Vice President and Chief Financial Officer since July of 2005, Jim Plake was promoted to his current position on December 4, 2006. Previously, Jim was the Vice President of Finance and Administration, beginning in August of 1995. He joined the Pirates in November of 1991 as Director of Finance.

In his current role, Jim directs the daily financial and administrative operations for the Pirates, including financial reporting, budgets, payroll, treasury, human resources, information systems and insurance. In addition, Jim also directs and oversees projects that affect all aspects of the club's business operations.

Prior to joining the Pirates, Jim was a senior manager with the public accounting firm of Price Waterhouse where he was responsible for the audit engagements of both Fortune 500 and middle-market companies.

PERSONAL: James D. Plake...Born on 3/27/55 in McKeesport, PA...Wife's name is Carol...Three children: Julie (28), Joanie (25) and Jimmy (23)...Is a graduate of Serra High School in McKeesport, PA...Earned a degree in accounting from Penn State University in 1980...Is a member of both the Pennsylvania and American Institute of Certified Public Accountants...Currently serves on the board of the Downtown YMCA, Partners For Quality, Inc., Allegheny Children's Initiative, Inc., Northside Community Development Fund and the advisory board for The Center for Sports Business & Research at the Penn State University Smeal College of Business.

DENNIS DAPRA

Executive Vice President & General Manager, PNC Park/Facilities

Dennis DaPra is the Executive Vice President & General Manager, PNC Park/Facilities.

In his role, Dennis is responsible for all day-to-day operational aspects associated with PNC Park and its facilities, including guest relations, food and beverage operations, event management, operational staffing, security and facility cleaning/maintenance. Dennis also serves as the Pirates liaison for the City of Pittsburgh, the Sports and Exhibition Authority and Stadium Authority. In addition, he is responsible for the development and management of all organized labor contracts and relationships relating to PNC Park and the coordination of the North Shore Development plans.

DaPra oversaw the demolition and re-building of Pirate City in Bradenton, FL, along with the renovations to McKechnie Field, the Pirates southern home since 1969. He also oversees the day-to-day operation and facility management of the Bradenton Operations staff as well as the operation and facility management of the club's 46-acre Dominican Republic facility in El Toro.

LOU DePAOLI

Executive Vice President & Chief Marketing Officer

Lou DePaoli joined the Pirates as their Executive Vice President and Chief Marketing Officer on 9/26/08. In his position, he oversees the club's marketing, ticket sales, corporate sponsorship and communications efforts.

DePaoli previously worked for the Atlanta Spirit organization, where he held the position of Executive Vice President and Chief Marketing Officer for the Atlanta Hawks of the National Basketball Association, Atlanta Thrashers of the National Hockey League and Phillips Arena. In this position he was responsible for all marketing, ticket sales, corporate sponsorship sales, communications and community development efforts for the organization.

Prior to joining the Atlanta Spirit in May of 2005, DePaoli was the National Basketball Association's Vice President of Team Marketing and Business Development in the NBA's Team Marketing and Business Operations department. There, Lou worked with the NBA, Women's National Basketball Association and National Basketball Development League senior management on all business initiatives, including ticket sales, sponsor sales and service, marketing, advertising and promotions. DePaoli, who started in the NBA League Office in December of 2000, worked closely with the NBA clubs to improve their business operations and to implement the industry's best practices.

DePaoli also worked for the Florida Marlins from 1996 to 2000, serving first as the Director of Ticket Sales and then as Vice President of Sales and Marketing for the club. With the Marlins, DePaoli's duties included overseeing ticket sales, sponsorship sales, marketing and customer service. During his tenure with the Marlins, the club won a World Series title in 1997.

Prior to joining the Marlins in 1996, DePaoli was Vice President of Sales for the Worcester IceCats Hockey Club of the American Hockey League (AHL) from the inaugural 1994-95 season through the beginning of the 1996-97 season.

BASEBALL OPERATIONS BIOGRAPHIES

Assistant General Manager

Greg Smith is in his first season as Assistant General Manager after spending four seasons as Pittsburgh's Director of Scouting. He joined the organization on November 7, 2007.

In his new role, Greg will provide recommendations to General Manager Neal Huntington regarding personnel, strategic planning and decision making for the Baseball Operations department while also working closely with Scouting Director Joe DelliCarri and the entire scouting staff.

Smith oversaw four drafts with the Pirates and they were some of the most successful in all of baseball. In 2008, Smith spearheaded the club's First-Year Player Draft efforts and selected Vanderbilt third baseman Pedro Alvarez - who was rated by Baseball America as the "No. 1 prospect" in the draft - with the second pick overall. The Pirates signed 32 of their 50 picks from the 2008 draft and selected 33 players from the college ranks.

Smith and his staff followed up with another strong draft in 2009, signing each of the first 14 selections and 23 overall. In 2010, the Pirates strengthened their pitching depth by selecting a pitcher in 12 of the first 14 rounds. Jameson Taillon and Stetson Allie, considered by many to be the top two high school pitching prospects in the country, were selected first and second respectively by Smith and his staff in the annual draft. Among the 50 total players drafted by the Pirates in 2010, 27 were signed, including 16 pitchers.

The Pirates had the first overall pick in the 2011 First-Year Player Draft and selected UCLA RHP Gerrit Cole, who was considered by many publications as one of the best collegiate pitchers available in the draft. With their second pick in the 2011 Draft, Smith and his staff selected Texas high school outfielder Josh Bell, a switch-hitter who was committed to playing at the University of Texas before signing with the Pirates. Overall in 2011, the Bucs signed 22 of their 50 draft picks.

Smith is a 22-year scouting veteran, having spent 11 seasons with the Detroit organization, working the last three years (2005-07) as the club's special assignment scout.

Prior to 2005, Greg spent eight seasons (1997-2004) as Detroit's Director of Scouting where he oversaw the First-Year Player Draft and international scouting. He also simultaneously served as the Club's Director of Player Development from 2000-2002. Before joining the Tigers organization, Smith spent seven years (1990-96) as an area scout with the San Diego Padres, covering areas from Florida to Maryland.

Under Smith's guidance, the Tigers selected 2006 American League Rookie of the Year and 2011 A.L. Cy Young Award winner and MVP Justin Verlander with the second overall pick in the 2004 draft. Smith and his staff were rated by Baseball America as having the strongest draft of all 30 major league clubs in 2002, a year in which the Tigers also selected outfielder Curtis Granderson in the third round and right-handed pitcher Joel Zumaya in the 11th round. Additionally, Greg was directly responsible for the signing of Jair Jurrjens as a non-drafted free agent out of Curacao. During Smith's tenure as Director of Scouting, the Tigers signed and developed over 40 players who reached the Major League level.

Smith spent seven years (1990-1996) as an area scout with the San Diego Padres before joining the Detroit organization. An outfielder/first baseman during his playing days, he signed with the Padres as a free agent on 6/7/88 and played three seasons in the minor leagues with Spokane (1988), Charleston, SC (1989) and Riverside (1990), a club managed by Bruce Bochy.

PERSONAL: Greg was born on 2/2/66 in Chattanooga, TN. He received his bachelor's degree in Sociology in 1988 from Vanderbilt University, where he also played baseball and led the SEC in hitting in 1987. Smith resides in Pittsburgh with his wife Martha.

KYLE STARK

Assistant General Manager

Kyle Stark is in his first season as Assistant General Manager after spending four seasons (2008-2011) as Pittsburgh's Director of Player Development. He joined the organization on November 7, 2007.

In his new role, Stark will oversee all aspects of development for both players and staff throughout the organization from the Major Leagues down, while also working closely with first-year Farm Director Larry Broadway. In addition, he will provide recommendations to General Manager Neal Huntington regarding personnel, strategic planning and decision making for the Baseball Operations department.

During his tenure as the club's Director of Player Development, Stark created a system that was focused on helping all players achieve mastery - personally, mentally, physically, and fundamentally - and develop as professionals. That has been, and will continue to be accomplished through a relentless, systematic, and cohesive approach involving structured, consistent, progression-oriented instruction throughout the organization and detailed, written development plans for all players.

Prior to joining Huntington's staff, Stark spent four years in Cleveland's Baseball Operations department, assisting in all areas of Scouting, Player Development and Major League Operations. In 2006 and 2007, Stark performed the baseball related duties of the Assistant Farm Director, oversaw the club's efforts in Pacific Rim Scouting, and coordinated the club's Advanced Scouting which included providing scouting reports on upcoming opponents.

PERSONAL: Kyle was born on 7/9/78 in Bradford, PA, and currently resides in Pittsburgh with his wife, Heather, and two sons: Chance (12) and Cooper (5). He is a 1999 graduate of Ball State University and received a law degree from the University of Toledo in 2002 and a master's degree in Business Administration from St. Bonaventure in 2004. In his two years at St. Bonaventure, Stark also served as Pitching Coach for the baseball team.

TYRONE BROOKS

Director of Player Personnel

The 2012 season marks Tyrone Brooks' third year as a member of the Pirates Baseball Operations department. He spent two years as the club's Director of Baseball Operations before being named Director of Player Personnel on September 16, 2011.

In his new role, Brooks will lead the Professional Scouting Department and the International Scouting Department (non-Latin American). He will continue to assist General Manager Neal Huntington with strategic planning, personnel moves and decision making for the Baseball Operations department.

Prior to joining the Pittsburgh organization, Brooks spent three seasons (2007-09) as a Professional Scout with the Cleveland Indians, with an emphasis on the Pacific Coast League, Texas League and California League while giving secondary Major League coverage.

Brooks also spent 11 years working with the Atlanta Braves, most recently as their Director of Baseball Administration in 2006. He originally joined the Braves as their Baseball Operations Trainee in May of 1996 through the club's Career Initiative Program. Ty also served the Atlanta organization as a Baseball Operations Assistant, Area Scouting Supervisor, Assistant, Player Personnel and Director of Baseball Operations.

Brooks is the founder of the Baseball Industry Network, a baseball networking group, that includes over 11,000 members from around the world, covering the full gamut of people working within or connected to the baseball industry. The Baseball Industry Network is currently located on LinkedIn at www.baseballindustrynetwork.com.

Ty is also on the Board of Directors of the Midwest Scouts Association, is a member of the Buck O'Neil Professional Scouts and Coaches Association and sits on the Board of Directors for the North County High School (Glen Burnie, MD) Alumni Scholarship.

PERSONAL: Tyrone was born on 10/9/73 in Bethesda, MD, and currently resides in Pittsburgh with his wife, Stephanie, and daughter Olivia (2). He is a 1996 graduate of the University of Maryland at College Park, where he double-majored in Accounting and Marketing. He was also a staff photographer for the Terrapin Yearbook and the highly-acclaimed student newspaper, The Diamondback, while attending college.

KEVAN GRAVES

Director of Baseball Operations

The 2012 season marks Kevan Graves' fourth year as a member of the Pirates Baseball Operations department. He was hired as a Baseball Operations Assistant on October 31, 2008 and spent the last two seasons as the Assistant Director of Baseball Operations.

On September 16, 2011, Graves was promoted to Director of Baseball Operations. In his new role, he will oversee the day-to-day operations of the Baseball Operations department.

Prior to joining the Pittsburgh organization, Graves was a member of the inaugural class of the Executive Development Program in the MLB Commissioner's Office, where he worked primarily with the Labor Relations and Baseball Operations Departments on contract analysis and various special projects. As part of the program, he also spent a year with the Minnesota Twins where he split time between the Baseball Operations and Business Development Departments. Additionally, Graves previously worked for the San Francisco Giants Legal Department for two years.

PERSONAL: Kevan was born on 12/11/1980 in Berkeley, CA, and currently resides in Pittsburgh with his fiancée Keri Keenan. He is a 2003 graduate of Dartmouth College, where he was a member of the Varsity Baseball team and majored in History.

PIRATES MINOR LEAGUE PLAYERS AND PITCHERS OF THE YEAR

Since 2000, the Pirates have been honoring a minor league player and pitcher with a yearly award. They are recognized for their achievement during a September pregame ceremony at PNC Park in Pittsburgh and a plaque hangs on the wall in the Woody Huyke clubhouse in Bradenton showing each winner.

JIM BENEDICT

Special Assistant to the General Manager

Jim Benedict joined the Pittsburgh organization on October 28, 2008. He spent the 2009 season as a Special Assistant to General Manager Neal Huntington and also performed those same duties in 2011. Benedict also served the organization as its Minor League Pitching Coordinator in 2010 and 2011.

In his current role, Jim will have an emphasis on Player Development and Advance Scouting of American League clubs.

Prior to joining the Pirates, Benedict spent the 2007 and 2008 seasons as a Major League Scout with the Cleveland Indians, while also performing the duties as an Advance Scout. He also worked six years (2001-06) with the New York Yankees as a Pro Scout and a Special Assistant to the club's Baseball Operations department under General Manager Brian Cashman.

Benedict was the Pitching Coach for Loyola Marymount and Chapman College in California before beginning his scouting career with the Texas Rangers in 1990. He also worked as a Minor League Pitching Coordinator with the Los Angeles Dodgers (1998-2000) and in the same capacity with the Montreal Expos for five seasons (1994-98).

PERSONAL: Jim was born on February 1, 1961 in Burbank, CA, and resides in Lakewood Ranch, FL, with wife Linda and son John (12). He played two seasons of baseball at LA Valley Community College (1981-82) and also served as a coach there in 1987. He was inducted into the LVC Athletic Hall-of-Fame in June 2010. Benedict also played baseball at Arizona State and was signed by the Kansas City Royals as a non-drafted free agent in 1984. He pitched three seasons (1984-86) in the Kansas City and Atlanta farm systems and went 18-15 with a 2.66 ERA and 23 saves in 127 relief appearances.

MARC DELPIANO

Special Assistant to the General Manager

Marc DelPiano joined General Manager Neal Huntington's staff on December 3, 2008, and is in his fourth season as a Special Assistant to the GM. His emphasis is on International Scouting and Player Acquisition.

Prior to joining the Pirates, DelPiano spent three seasons (2006-08) as a Special Assignment Scout with the Boston Red Sox and was a part of the scouting staff that helped contribute to a World Series title in 2007.

DelPiano also worked a total of 10 years with the Montreal Expos and Florida Marlins. He was an area scout with the Expos from 1996-2000, evaluating players in the Northeast region, before serving the Expos/Marlins as the East Coast Scouting Supervisor through the 2003 season. Marc also served the Marlins as their Director of Player Development during the 2003 World Series Championship season when the club was also named Organization-of-the-Year. He was Florida's Director of International Scouting for the 2005 campaign.

After playing two seasons (1989-1990) as an infielder in the Cleveland and Houston organizations, DelPiano spent five seasons as an area scout and minor league coach with Texas, coaching for affiliates in Erie, PA, and Hudson Valley, NY.

DelPiano played collegiate baseball at Broward Community College in 1986 and at the University of Tennessee for two seasons (1987-88) before being signed as a non-drafted free agent by the Indians in 1989. He received his Bachelor's degree in Education from the State University of New York at Cortland in 1991.

PERSONAL: Marc was born on July 29, 1967 in Rome, NY, and was raised in Auburn, NY. He resides in Auburn with his wife Nikki and their children Gina (16), Alexandra (15) and Jimmy (14).

DAVE JAUSS

Special Assistant to the General Manager

Dave Jauss is in his first season with the Pittsburgh organization and his 25th in professional baseball. In his current role, Dave will assist in Player Acquisition and will have an emphasis on Advance Scouting of National League clubs.

Jauss spent the 2011 season with the New York Mets, working as their Coordinator of Staff Development. He served the Mets as their Major League Bench Coach in 2010 after working in the same capacity under manager Dave Trembley in Baltimore (2008-09) and under manager Grady Little with the Dodgers in Los Angeles (2006-07).

Prior to joining the Dodgers in 2006, Jauss spent 10 seasons working as a coach, scout and administrator in the Boston organization from 1996-2005. He spent the 1995 campaign as Baltimore's minor league field coordinator.

Jauss' start in professional baseball came in 1988 when he managed Montreal's Gulf Coast League team. He spent a total of three seasons as a manager in the Expos' farm system (1988, 1992, 1994), compiled a 188-151 (.539) record and was named Eastern League Manager -of-the-Year after guiding Harrisburg to an 88-51 record and first-place finish in 1994.

In addition to his coaching at the professional level, Jauss spent six years as a college head coach. He coached at Westfield (MA) State College from 1982-84 and at Atlantic Christian College in Wilson, NC from 1985-87.

PERSONAL: Dave was born on January 16, 1957 in Chicago, IL, and resides in Naples, FL, with wife Billie. The couple has three sons: DJ (21), Charley (19) and Will (15). He earned a B.A. degree in Psychology from Amherst (MA) College and a Master's Degree in Sports Management from the University of Massachusetts. At Amherst, he captained the baseball and basketball teams.

JAX ROBERTSON

Special Assistant to the General Manager

Jax Robertson joined the Pittsburgh organization on January 22, 2002, and is in his 10th season as a Special Assistant to the General Manager. In this role, his emphasis will be on Major League Scouting and Player Acquisition.

Prior to joining the Pirates, Robertson spent two years working as a professional scout with the Florida Marlins. He also worked for the Marlins as their national crosschecker for eight years (1992-1999).

Robertson also served the Detroit Tigers as their Director of Scouting for four years (1988-1991). He joined the Detroit organization in 1982 and assumed various roles within the scouting department prior to being named Director.

A catcher during his playing days, Robertson signed a professional contract with the Cubs in 1974 and spent one season in their minor league system. After receiving a master's degree in sports administration from Ohio University, he joined the New York Yankees scouting staff and was responsible for signing Don Mattingly after the club selected him in the 19th round of the 1979 free agent draft. Robertson worked with New York for four years (1977-1980) and then served Old Dominion University as an assistant baseball coach before joining Detroit.

PERSONAL: Jax was born on March 4, 1952 in Milwaukee, WI. He and his wife Cindy reside in Cary, NC, and have two children; son Matt (30) and daughter Lindsay (24). Robertson has been on the selection committee for Team USA since 2006.

DOUG STRANGE

Special Assistant to the General Manager

Doug Strange is in his 11th season as a member of the Pirates Baseball Operations department and returns to the role in which he worked in 2003 and 2004. He will work closely with GM Neal Huntington with an emphasis on Player Development and Player Acquisitions.

Strange spent the last two seasons working as the Director of Player Personnel. He initially joined the staff as a Professional Scout prior to the 2002 campaign and also served as a Special Assistant to the General Manager and Assistant General Manager for three years (2005-07) before assuming his previous role prior to the 2010 season.

Originally selected by Detroit in the seventh round of the 1985 June draft, Strange made his big league debut with the Tigers on 7/13/89 and singled off Seattle's Scott Bankhead for his first hit on 7/15/89. Doug connected off Kansas City's Bret Saberhagen for his first major league home run on 9/4/89. Following his one season with the Tigers, he also played with the Cubs (1991-92), Rangers (1993-94), Mariners (1995-96), Expos (1997) and Pirates (1998).

In 707 career major league games, Strange hit .233 with 31 home runs and 211 RBI. The switch-hitting infielder made a total of 339 appearances at third base, 229 at second base, 18 in left field, 10 at shortstop, seven at first base and two in right field during his nine seasons in the big leagues.

Following his playing days, Strange worked as an area scout with the Florida Marlins from July of 2000 thru the 2001 season. He also served as the club's East Coast crosschecker prior to joining the Pirates Baseball Operations department.

PERSONAL: Doug was born on 4/13/64 in Greenville, SC. He and his wife Holli reside in Gibsonsia, PA, with their five children; 15-year-old quadruplets (boys Joseph, Jackson and Jake and girl Logan), who were born at the Duke Medical Center in Durham, NC, on 2/12/97 and daughter Lauren (10).

PIRATES CHARITIES

Pirates Charities is committed to strengthening the community by supporting organizations and programs aimed at improving the lives of children and adults in the greater Pittsburgh region. Pirates Charities places a special emphasis on supporting youth programs focused on health, fitness, and education by developing partnerships with those who share in our mission.

By focusing its charitable contributions, Pirates Charities has enabled the Pirates to support projects and programs that align with its mission, while allowing the organization to continue and expand upon its many community relations activities. As a result, Pirates Charities has increased the impact of the Pirates charitable support throughout the Pittsburgh region.

Pirates Charities has contributed more than $2.4 million to the Pittsburgh region, Bradenton, Florida community and Estorga, Dominican Republic (location of the Pirates Latin American Headquarters) since its inception in the Fall of 2006.

2011 PIRATES CHARITIES PROGRAM HIGHLIGHTS

Miracle League Fields

Pirates Charities is a strong supporter of Miracle League programs in our community. The Miracle League believes that "every child deserves a chance to play baseball," and through the construction of uniquely designed fields, children with special needs can do just that. Pirates Charities has pledged more than $500,000 to help build Miracle League Fields in Cranberry Township, Murrysville and the South Hills in Pennsylvania, in Wheeling, West Virginia and in Bradenton, Florida. Every summer, Pirates players and coaches conduct a Miracle League Fantasy Camp for area Miracle League participants. Pirates Charities is proud to partner with Baseball Fantasy Camp for Kids to make this event possible.

Fields For Kids

In its third year, Fields for Kids continues to provide much-needed financial support to area youth baseball and softball organizations to help them repair and enhance their playing facilities. In 2011, 24 individual grants between $1,000 and $5,000 were distributed in the greater Pittsburgh region. The program was also extended to Bradenton, Florida for the first time last year. Since Fields for Kids inception in 2009, a total of more than $333,000 has been contributed in support of youth baseball and softball programs in our community.

Pittsburgh RBI (Reviving Baseball In Inner Cities)

Pirates Charities partners with the Boys & Girls Clubs of Western Pennsylvania to support Pittsburgh RBI. More than 900 youth athletes participate in the program, which provides equipment, coaching, educational programs and the opportunity to participate in the City of Pittsburgh's BIG League sports competitive baseball program. Pittsburgh RBI teams are located in Beltzhoover, Braddock, Carnegie, Duquesne, East Hills, the Hill District, Homewood, McKeesport, Northview Heights, Paulson, Shadyside and Wilkinsburg. Pirates coaches participated in five clinics in 2011 at the Pirates Community Baseball Center to teach and inform coaches about the proper techniques in strength & conditioning, hitting, fielding, pitching and baserunning. Pirates pitcher James McDonald also visited with youth from the Pittsburgh RBI program at Stargell Field, where he instructed them on various elements of the game while also sharing some important life lessons learned throughout his career.

Junior Pirates

Pirates Charities and the City of Pittsburgh encourage youngsters to get involved in baseball at an early age. Children from ages 4 – 8 in 20 Pittsburgh city neighborhoods have the opportunity to become Junior Pirates every summer. Through this program, the basics of baseball are taught to the children, who each receive a Pirates t-shirt and cap, and are invited to PNC Park for Junior Pirates Day where they are saluted by the crowd during a special pregame ceremony.

2011 PIRATES CHARITIES FUNDRAISING EFFORTS

Women's Baseball Clinic

Approximately 200 female Pirates fans came out to PNC Park bright and early on the morning of June 5, 2011 to participate in the "Pitch for Hope" Women's Baseball Clinic and raise money for breast cancer research. Manager Clint Hurdle welcomed the group and Pirates coaches provided instruction on hitting, fielding and throwing. Following the clinic, participants enjoyed brunch on The Deck where they watched the Pirates take on the Philadelphia Phillies. Proceeds from the event benefitted Glimmer of Hope, a local organization that provides funding for breast cancer research.

Pittsburgh Pirates 5K Home Run

Nearly 2,500 runners crossed the finish line at home plate at PNC Park on April 9, 2011 during the inaugural Pittsburgh Pirates 5K Home Run. The race raised more than $68,000 to benefit Pirates Charities programs, and winners were recognized during a special pregame ceremony at the Pirates game that evening.

Annual Pirates Charities Golf Classics

On Thursday, August 18, 2011, over 100 participants joined current and former Pirates players, broadcasters and front office executives at the renowned Fox Chapel Golf Club for the 6th annual Pirates Charities Golf Classic. This event, presented by West Penn Allegheny Health System, raised $161,450 for Pirates Charities.

Pirates supporters in Bradenton, Florida had the opportunity to mingle with Pirates players, coaches and staff during 2011 Spring Training at the 4th annual Pirates Charities Spring Training Golf Classic. The event took place on February 24, 2011 and raised more than $38,000.

Annual Pirates Charities Sporting Clays

The 3rd annual Pirates Charities Sporting Clays Invitational was held on September 8, 2011 at 7 Springs Mountain Resort. The event was co-chaired by Pirates Chairman Bob Nutting, and team Medical Director, Dr. Patrick DeMeo. Over 130 participants spent the day with Pirates players, alumni, broadcasters and front office executives while enjoying a top-notch shooting course and helping raise money for Pirates Charities. Over $64,000 was raised at this event.

2011 PLAYER INITIATIVES

Clint Hurdle's "Wins For Kids"

Manager Clint Hurdle began a fundraising program during his tenure with the Colorado Rockies that benefited children with Prader-Willi Syndrome. Clint is continuing that effort with the Pirates by leading Pirates Charities "Wins for Kids" initiative. Fans contribute dollars for every Pirates' win, with all proceeds going to Pirates Charities and the Prader-Willi Syndrome Program at The Children's Institute of Pittsburgh. With contributions from Trib Total Media, Seven Springs and many individual fans, more than $52,000 was raised in 2011.

Jeff Karsten's "Karstens Kares"

Jeff and his fiancée, Jessica, hosted the first ever "Karstens Kares: Pirates Chef Event" at Nakama in Pittsburgh's Southside. This event raised over $28,000, to benefit Pirates Charities and the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation – Western Pennsylvania Chapter. Jeff was also an honorary co-chair of the season-long Cystic Fibrosis "65 Roses Club," along with Pirates broadcasters Greg Brown and Steve Blass. In addition, Jeff visited children at local hospitals throughout the summer, bringing teammates, the Pirate Parrot, new toys and entertainment equipment along on several occasions. For his efforts, Jeff was the Pittsburgh Pirates 2011 Clemente Award Winner.

Andrew McCutchen's "Cutch's Crew"

Andrew partnered with the Pittsburgh Public Schools Athletics Reform Program to encourage children to get involved in athletics. He made appearances at Pittsburgh Public Schools last year to talk with students on the benefits of getting involved in school athletic programs. Andrew also hosted groups of students at PNC Park to watch batting practice. Each student received a complimentary game ticket near Andrew's center field position, food and beverage vouchers and Cutch's Crew t-shirts.

Charlie Morton's Military Appreciation Initiative

Charlie and his wife, Cindy, contributed to Pirates Charities and Operation Troop Appreciation as a part of their season long Military Appreciation Initiative. With their donation, Charlie and Cindy hosted 35 Military Families for a private batting practice session and postgame party on the 4th of July at PNC Park. They also adopted currently deployed units overseas and assisted with a packing event at OTA Headquarters. Throughout the 2011 season Charlie and Cindy welcomed deserving Military Families and Wounded Warriors to VIP Experiences at PNC Park and attended the National Veteran Wheelchair Games, which were hosted in Pittsburgh in August.

Chris Resop & Make-A-Wish

Chris Resop and his wife Kara participated in the 2011 Pirates Charities Make-A-Wish Scholarship Awards Ceremonies at PNC Park. They also hosted one of the scholarship winners at PNC Park and gave her school supplies and dorm room essentials for her first semester in college. Chris and Kara also made frequent visits to local hospitals to visit with children.

Neil Walker

For the second year, Neil was honorary co-chair of the Players 4 Kids Gala, benefiting the Pittsburgh Kids Foundation. Funds raised at the event will support disadvantaged children in our area and relief efforts in Haiti. He was also honored with the Bob Prince Award at the 38th annual Art Rooney Awards Dinner. Named for the legendary Pirates broadcaster, the Bob Prince Award is given by the Catholic Youth Association to the Pittsburgh sports person who best exemplifies perseverance, accomplishment and love of sport.

Clemente Day

Each September, MLB honors Pirates Hall of Famer Roberto Clemente and his humanitarian work through its Clemente Day celebration. Pirates Charities, in partnership with Pittsburgh Public Schools, selects a local elementary school to visit on Clemente Day and bring needed supplies. In 2011, the entire Pirates team visited Pittsburgh Faison PreK-5 in Homewood. The team also brought a truckload of school supplies and recreation equipment with a total value of more than $20,000. Some of the items given to the school included notebooks, paper, pencils, crayons, yoga mats, volleyballs and bicycles.

Pirates Community Commitment Program

More than 700 hours of community service were performed by Pirates major and minor league players over the course of the 2011 season. On MLB's Clemente Day, one player from each of the team's minor league affiliates came to Pittsburgh to join the Pirates Clemente Award winner, Jeff Karstens, for an on-field pregame ceremony where they received individual Pirates Community Commitment Awards, recognizing their contributions to the communities in which they play.

Chuck Tanner Award

Chuck Tanner's pride for the Pirates, his love for the city of Pittsburgh, and his devotion to the game of baseball for more than six decades left a lasting legacy with the Pirates. Upon his passing, the Pirates and the Tanner Family established the "We Are Fam-A-Lee" Fund to present an annual award to the Minor League staff person who best exemplifies Chuck's optimism, work ethic and leadership. Gulf League Coach Mike Lum was honored with the inaugural award during Spring Training of 2011.

"Let's Go Bucs, Let's Go Green" Campaign

This program integrates greening initiatives, sustainable business practices and educational outreach throughout the Pirates organization and PNC Park facility.

Through the 2011 "Let's Go Bucs, Let's Go Green" program, the Pirates recycled:

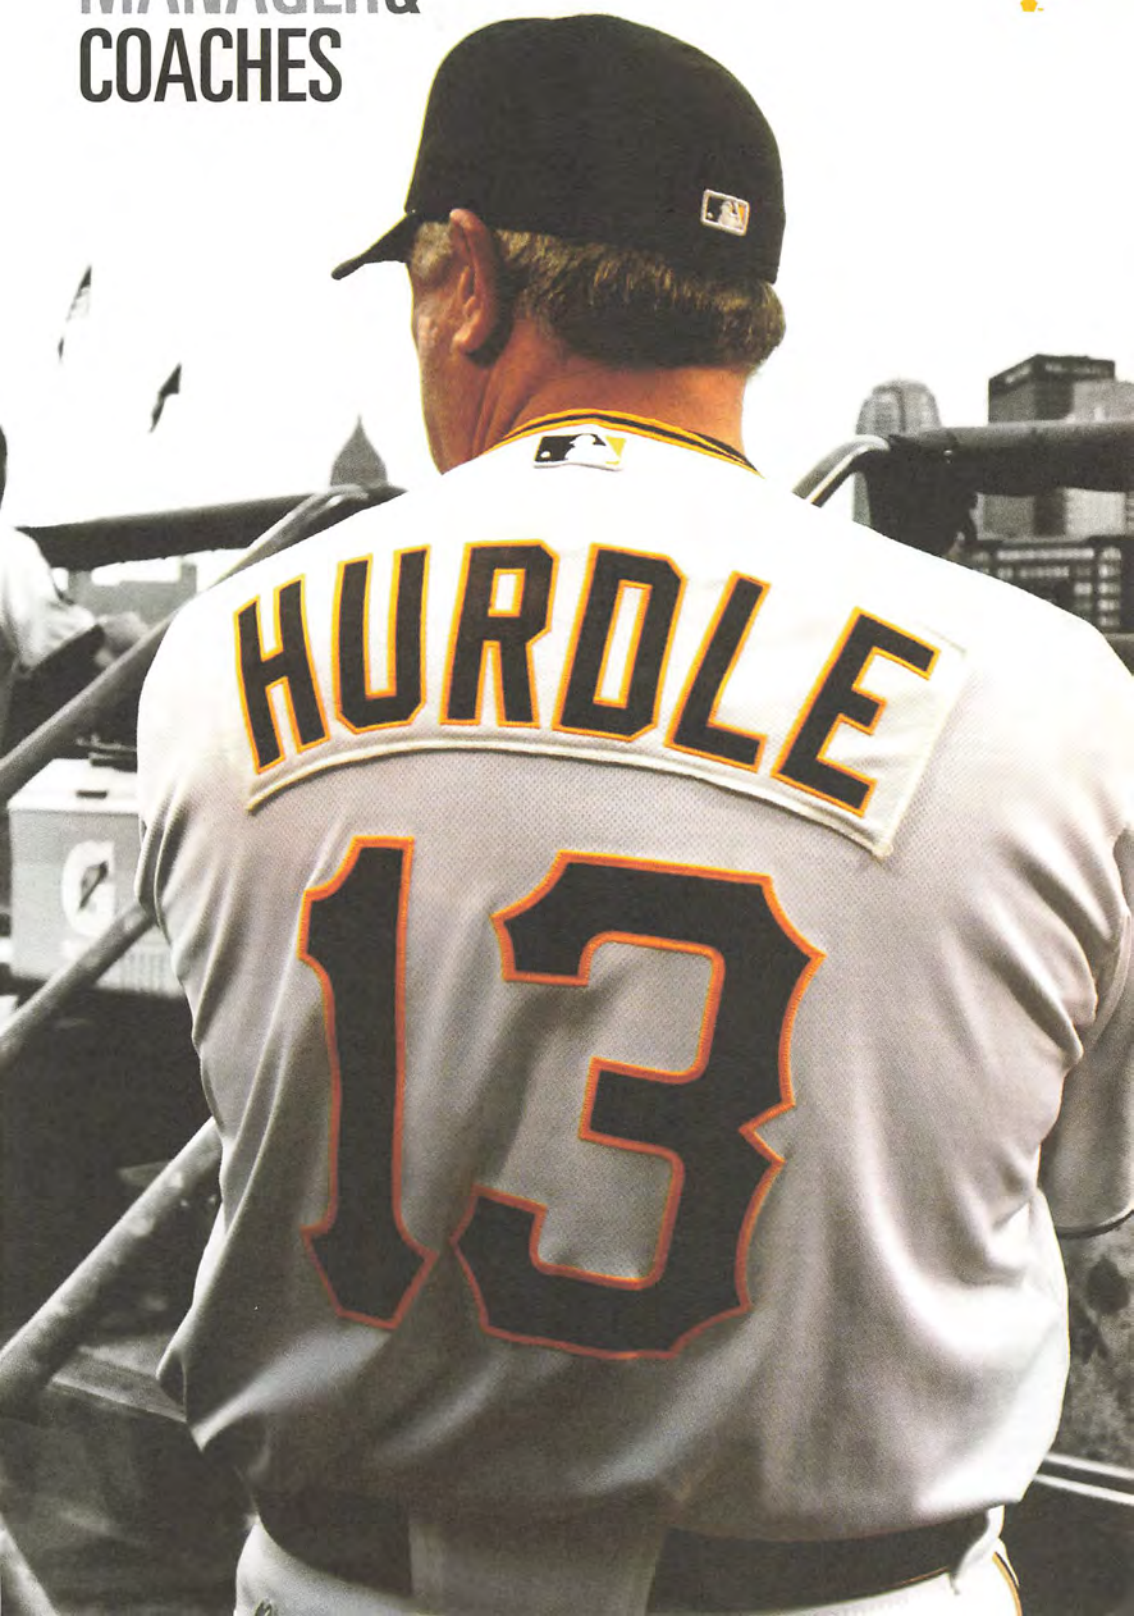

- 74.5 tons of glass
- 17.7 tons of aluminum cans
- 23.2 tons of plastic
- 10.4 tons of paper
- 151.1 tons of baled cardboard
- 23.6 tons of used cooking oil
- 58.9 tons of yard waste
- 572.8 tons of food waste
- 96.8 tons of other recyclable materials

In partnership with concessionaires ARAMARK and Levy, the Pittsburgh Pirates also support Rock and Wrap it Up! Inc. by recovering prepared but untouched food from PNC Park. Rather than being thrown away, this food is donated to the Greater Pittsburgh Community Food Bank for distribution to the community. From April through September 2011, 6,244 pounds of food was recovered in conjunction with home games at PNC Park.

MANAGER & COACHES

CLINT HURDLE

MANAGER

AGE: 54 (turns 55 on July 30)
 BORN: 7/30/57 in Big Rapids, MI
 RESIDES: Pittsburgh, PA
 APPOINTED: 11/15/10

POSITION PLAYED: OF
 CONTRACT: Signed thru 2013

Clint Hurdle was named manager of the Pittsburgh Pirates on November 15, 2010, becoming the 39th manager in the organization's 125-year history. The 2012 season will mark his 38th in professional baseball.

For most of the first four months of the 2011 season, Hurdle had the Pirates at the top or near the top of the N.L. Central standings. His club went 16-11 during the month of June and led the division with a 48-43 record on July 15. Despite being beset by injuries to their two starting catchers, a member of the starting rotation and their main setup man in the bullpen, the 2011 Pirates went a season-high seven games over .500 with a 51-44 record on July 19. The Pirates spent their final day in first place on July 25 and went 19-43 from that point on. Hurdle captured his 600th career managerial victory with the Pirates' 5-4 win over the Astros at PNC Park on September 7.

Clint participated in the Miracle League Fantasy Camp event in Cranberry Twp., PA

For his efforts in 2011, Hurdle received a pair of third-place votes in the balloting for N.L. Manager-of-the-Year and finished tied for sixth in the overall voting, which was won by Arizona manager Kirk Gibson.

Hurdle spent the 2010 season as the Hitting Coach of the American League champion Texas Rangers, a club that led the Major Leagues with a .276 batting average during the regular season - paced by A.L. MVP Josh Hamilton (.359 average, 32 home runs and 100 RBI) and Vladimir Guerrero (.300 average, 29 home runs and 115 RBI).

Prior to joining the Texas coaching staff on November 5, 2009, Hurdle spent over 15 years in the Colorado organization, serving as a minor league hitting coordinator, Major League hitting coach and manager at the big league level. He compiled a 543-625 record while serving the Rockies as manager from April 26, 2002, until he was relieved of his duties on May 29, 2009. Clint has the most wins of any manager in Colorado team history, winning his 500th career game on August 29, 2008 at Los Angeles.

In 2007, Hurdle led the Rockies to the World Series as the club captured its first National League pennant in franchise history. The 2007 club, which won 11 straight games in September, won 21 of its 22 games leading up to the World Series, where Boston pulled off a four-game sweep. During the 2007 post season, the Rockies swept the Phillies in the Division Series and Arizona in the Championship Series before falling to the Red Sox in the Fall Classic.

EJECTIONS WITH THE PIRATES

Chris Conroy	5/14/11	arguing call at first base
Jerry Layne	6/12/11	arguing catch/no catch in CF
Brian Knight	8/19/11	arguing balls/strike call
Brian Knight	8/21/11	SB call at second base
Sam Holbrook	9/13/11	appeal call at third base

For his efforts in 2007, Hurdle received four first-place votes and finished third in the voting for N.L. Manager-of-the-Year. His '07 squad also compiled the highest single-season fielding pct. in Major League history (.989), a mark that still stands. Clint also served as manager of the National League in the 2008 All-Star Game at Yankee Stadium, the longest game (time, innings) in All-Star history (the N.L. lost 4-3 in 15 innings in a game that lasted 4:50). Hurdle was also a coach for the N.L. staff during the 2004 All-Star Game in Houston.

Hurdle's managerial career at the Major League level began with a 4-1 victory over the Phillies at Coors Field on April 26, 2002. He replaced Buddy Bell as Colorado's skipper that day and went 6-0 in his first six games - tied for the sixth-best winning streak by a manager following a mid-season managerial change in Major League history (Joe Morgan holds the record as his Red Sox won their first 12 games in 1988).

In his five-plus years tutoring Colorado's hitters, the club compiled the N.L.'s top two averages in 70 years (.294 in 2000 and .292 in 2001) and the league's most base hits since 1930 (1,664 in 2000). In 2001 alone, the Rockies established a Major League record for total bases (2,748) and the N.L. mark for extra-base hits (598). Hurdle, who doubled as the club's First Base Coach from 1997-98, remained on the coaching staff under three different Colorado managers; Don Baylor, Jim Leyland and Buddy Bell. Prior to becoming Hitting Coach in 1997, Clint served the Rockies as their minor league hitting instructor from 1994-96.

Hurdle played parts of 10 seasons in the Major Leagues with the Royals, Reds, Mets and Cardinals

Before he joined the Colorado organization, Hurdle managed in the New York Mets system for six seasons (1988-1993) and compiled a 412-418 record. In his first season as a manager, and in St. Lucie's first year of existence, he led the club to a second-half division title and the Florida State League championship. Hurdle also took his 1989 St. Lucie club and the 1990 Jackson team to the post season, losing in the first round of the playoffs each year. After managing Williamsport in the Eastern League in 1991, Clint wrapped up his minor league managerial career with two seasons at the Triple-A level with Tidewater in 1992 and Norfolk in 1993.

Primarily an outfielder during his playing days, Hurdle was selected by Kansas City in the first round (9th player overall) of the 1975 June draft. After three full seasons in the minor leagues, which included American Association Rookie-of-the-Year and All-Star Game MVP honors while playing with Omaha in 1977, Clint made his Major League debut at the age of 20 with the Royals on September 18, 1977, and hit a two-run homer off Seattle's Glenn Abbott in his second at bat.

Hurdle played parts of 10 seasons in the Major Leagues with the Royals (1977-1981), Reds (1982), Mets (1983, 1985, 1987) and Cardinals (1986) and compiled a .259 average, 81 doubles, 12 triples, 32 home runs and 193 RBI in 515 career games. He appeared in the post season twice with Kansas City, going 3-for-8 with an RBI in four games against the Yankees in the 1978 A.L.C.S., and advancing as far as the World Series in 1980, only to lose in four games to the Phillies.

After spending the 1982 season in the Cincinnati organization, Hurdle was signed by New York as a minor league free agent prior to the 1983 campaign and played three years in the Mets system before being selected by St. Louis in the 1985 Rule 5 Draft. In his final season as a player (1987), Clint appeared in 97 games with Triple-A Tidewater and went 1-for-3 in three games with the Mets. In his big league career, he made 240 appearances in right field, 96 in left field, 92 at first base, 22 at catcher and 15 at third base. Hurdle, who hit the final home run in Minnesota's historical Metropolitan Stadium on 9/30/81, hit his final big league homer on 9/9/86 at Three Rivers Stadium - a solo shot off Pittsburgh's Rick Reuschel.

Hurdle made his Major League debut at the age of 20 with the Royals on September 18, 1977

JEFF BANISTER

BENCH COACH

AGE: 48

APPOINTED: 11/24/10

BORN: 1/15/64 in Weatherford, OK

POSITION PLAYED: C/1B

RESIDES: League City, TX

Jeff Banister was officially named the Bench Coach of the Pirates on 11/24/10. He served the Major League club in that same capacity in 2010 from August 8 thru the end of the season.

Now in his 27th season with the Pittsburgh organization, Banister spent eight years as the club's Minor League Field Coordinator after working the previous four (1999-2002) as the Field Coordinator at the big league level.

Originally selected by the Pirates in the 25th round of the 1986 June free agent draft, Jeff began his professional playing career with Watertown. He compiled a .247 batting average, 37 home runs and 204 RBI in 515 minor league games. Banister made his Major League debut and only big league appearance as a pinch hitter with the Pirates on 7/23/91. He owns a career Major League batting average of 1.000, having singled off Atlanta's Dan Petry at Three Rivers Stadium in his only big league at bat. Jeff went on to miss the entire 1992 season due to right elbow surgery.

Banister was the recipient of the 2011 Pride of the Pirates Award

Banister served as a player/coach with Carolina (AA) in 1993 before beginning his managerial career with Welland in the New York-Penn League in 1994. He moved on to manage Augusta (A) in 1995 and Lynchburg (A) for 1996 and the first half of the 1997 campaign. His Augusta club captured the 1995 South Atlantic League championship. Jeff replaced Marc Hill as manager at Carolina for the remainder of the 1997 season and spent the entire 1998 campaign at the Mudcats helm. In his five seasons as a minor league manager, Banny compiled a 299-330 (.475) record. He also managed in the Hawaiian Winter League in 1995 and 1996; his team advanced to the playoffs each season, with his Honolulu club winning the championship in 1995. In 2004, Jeff managed Lynchburg for two weeks during a managerial change.

Banister's most-recent stint as a manager came in the Fall of 2009 as he managed the Scottsdale Scorpions to a 15-16 record and a second place finish during the Arizona Fall League.

Banister made a single appearance for the Pirates in 1991 and has a 1.000 Major League BA

PERSONAL: Jeffrey Todd Banister...Wife's name is Karen...Has two children, daughter Alexandra (4/30/95) and son Jacob (4/5/02)...Is a 1982 graduate of LaMarque (TX) High School, where he played baseball, football and golf...Was a quarterback and linebacker on the football team...Has battled bone cancer and osteomyelitis (an infection of the bone or bone marrow) throughout his professional career, in addition to having seven operations on his left ankle and leg in 1980...Played for Baytown (TX) Junior College, where he had his vertebrae crushed in a home-plate collision that left him temporarily paralyzed from the neck down...Attended the University of Houston in 1985-86...Shared the NBC Sportsman-of-the-Week award with Dennis Martinez (who threw a perfect game for the Expos) after making his big league debut in 1991...Was the first recipient of the Gilda Radner Courage Award (1991-92)...Participated in the last two Caravans and PirateFest events.

NICK LEYVA

THIRD BASE COACH

AGE: 58 (turns 59 on August 16)

APPOINTED: 11/24/10

BORN: 8/16/53 in Ontario, CA

POSITION PLAYED: INF

RESIDES: Wayne, PA

Nick Leyva joined Manager Clint Hurdle's staff as the Third Base Coach on November 24, 2010. In addition to his role as the Third Base Coach, he will serve as the Club's Infield Coach.

The 2012 season marks Leyva's 36th in professional baseball and his 18th at the Major League level. He spent the 2010 season as the Bench Coach for the Toronto Blue Jays - under Manager Cito Gaston - after working the previous two seasons as Toronto's Third Base Coach.

An infielder during his playing days, Leyva was selected by St. Louis in the 24th round of the 1975 First-Year Player Draft and began his professional career with Class-A Sarasota that summer. After a three-year playing career, which concluded with a stint at Double-A Arkansas in 1977, Leyva began his managerial/coaching career as a manager in the St. Louis farm system with Johnson City in 1977.

Leyva participated in the Pitch For Hope Women's Baseball Clinic in 2011

In his first six seasons managing in the minor leagues (1978-1983), Leyva posted 350-340 (.507) record and was named the Texas League Manager-of-the-Year in 1983 after guiding Arkansas to a 69-67 record and second-half division title.

Nick served the Cardinals as their First Base Coach at the big league level for two years (1984-85) before moving across the diamond to the third base coaching box for three years. In addition, he managed in the Puerto Rican Winter League for three years, winning the Championship and being named Manager-of-the-Year with Mayaguez in 1986.

After his five seasons as a coach with the Cardinals, the Philadelphia Phillies named Leyva their Manager on October 3, 1988. At 37 years of age at the time, he was the youngest skipper of the Phillies since 1960 (Gene Mauch - 34). Leyva guided the Phillies to a 77-85 record in his second year at the helm, showing a 10-game improvement from his rookie campaign. Philadelphia, however, let Leyva go on April 24, 1991, after he got off to a 4-9 start that season.

Leyva joined the Toronto organization for the first time in 1992 when he was hired to manage Triple-A Syracuse, a position he held for two seasons before serving the Blue Jays as their Third Base Coach from 1994-97. In that time, he also managed Lara in the Venezuelan Winter League in 1995 and 1996.

After working two years in private business, Nick spent seven seasons in the Chicago White Sox organization. He was a manager at the Triple-A level with Charlotte for two seasons prior to being named the Appalachian League Manager-of-the-Year in 2002 after guiding his Bristol club to a 43-25 record and a league title. He also won a Puerto Rican League championship with Mayaguez in 2002, one year after leading Lara to the Venezuelan Winter League championship.

For two years (2003-04), Leyva served the White Sox as their Minor League Infield Instructor before returning to the managerial post with Charlotte in 2005 and Bristol in 2006.

Leyva spent the 2007 season as the Third Base Coach with the Milwaukee Brewers. His last stint as a manager came in 2008 when he spent the first three months in the Mets farm system with Kingsport in the Appalachian League. He guided the K-Mets to a 1-2 record before being named Toronto's Third Base Coach on June 20 that season.

In his 14 seasons as a minor league manager, Leyva has posted a 714-777 (.479) record. He also captured three Winter League Championships while managing in Puerto Rico and Venezuela for seven seasons.

PERSONAL: Nicholas Tomas Leyva ("LAY-vah")...Wife's name is Chelé...Has one son; Casey (10/22/83)...Is a 1971 graduate of Chaffey High School in Ontario, CA...Received degrees in Diversified Major and Spanish from LaVerne (CA) College in 1975...Also played baseball at LaVerne College and was a 1975 NAIA All-American...Is a member of the Sports Hall-of-Fame at LaVerne College...Has participated in each of the last two Pirate Caravans.

GREGG RITCHIE

HITTING COACH

AGE: 48

APPOINTED:

11/24/10

BORN: 1/25/64 in Washington, D.C.

POSITION PLAYED: Outfield

RESIDES: Stafford, VA

Gregg Ritchie was named Pittsburgh's Hitting Coach on November 24, 2010.

The 2012 season marks Ritchie's seventh with the Pirates organization, having also served as the minor league hitting coordinator for five years (2006-2010). During that time, Gregg was instrumental in the development of some of Pittsburgh's young stars, including Andrew McCutchen, Jose Tabata, Neil Walker and Pedro Alvarez.

Prior to joining the Pirates, Gregg spent 10 years as a hitting coach in the Chicago White Sox minor league system. While part of their development staff, Chicago's minor league teams advanced to the playoffs numerous times and captured a Double-A Championship with Birmingham. The White Sox also won the 2005 World Series, sweeping the Houston Astros in four games.

Ritchie assisted in the building of a playground during Spring Training 2011

He began his coaching career with Bristol in the Appalachian League in 1996. After two seasons with Bristol, Ritchie moved on to Class-A Hickory (1998) and Class-A Winston-Salem (1999). Gregg spent a majority of his tenure with the White Sox coaching the Double-A Birmingham club, where he spent four seasons (2000-2002, 2005). He represented the White Sox at the Southern League All-Star Game in 2002 as his Barons went on to lead the circuit with a .269 batting average and 220 stolen bases.

Gregg began the 2003 campaign at Birmingham before moving up to the Triple-A Charlotte club when Hitting Coach Greg Walker was promoted to the Major League team on May 19. That year, Charlotte led the International League in home runs (139) and slugging percentage (.432), while ranking second in batting (.281). During his tenure with Birmingham, Ritchie helped propel the team to a franchise and Southern League record of six consecutive playoff berths.

Originally selected by San Francisco in the eighth round of the 1986 June Draft, Ritchie spent seven seasons as an outfielder in the Giants farm system (1986-1992). He led the California League with 118 runs scored while playing with San Jose in 1988 and was named to the Midwest League All-Star team in 1987 after posting a career-high .337 average and 41 stolen bases at Class-A Clinton.

Ritchie also played two seasons (1993-1994) with the Monterrey Industrials of the Mexican League and wrapped up his 10-year playing career in 1995 when he spent time with Triple-A Oklahoma City in the Texas organization, Tabasco of the Mexican League and with the Brother Elephants in Taiwan.

PERSONAL: Gregory Allen Ritchie...Wife's name is Kelly...Has four children; daughters Kaetlin (20), Riley (14) and Arizona (12) and son Logan (18)...Is a 1982 graduate of North Stafford (VA) High School, where he played baseball, football and basketball...Played four seasons of collegiate baseball at George Washington University, graduating in 1986...Was an All-American outfielder and was voted to the University's All-Century team...Was also elected to GW's Athletic Hall-of-Fame in 1999, joining other notables such as Red Auerbach, Steve Korcheck, Sam Perlozzo, Mike Toomey, John Castleberry and John Flaherty...Operates his own baseball school, "The Starting Lineup," in the offseason (instructs hundreds of students annually from elementary school through professional players)...Owns KaeLo Sports Inc., a company built around products that Gregg invented and patented including "The Hitter's Seat" and "The Pitch."

EUCLIDES ROJAS

BULLPEN COACH

AGE: 44 (turns 45 on August 25)

APPOINTED: 11/24/10

BORN: 8/25/67 in Havana, Cuba

POSITION PLAYED: RHP

RESIDES: Miami, FL

Euclides Rojas joined the Major League Coaching Staff as Bullpen Coach on November 24, 2010. He served the Boston Red Sox in the same capacity for two seasons (2003-04) and also spent 12 days in 1999 as the Florida Marlins Bullpen Coach.

Rojas spent six years as Pittsburgh's Latin American Field Coordinator, a position he held since 2005. He also worked for the Pirates as a roving minor league instructor in 2002 with an emphasis on the club's Latin American program.

Prior to joining the Pirates in January of 2002, Rojas spent five seasons as a coach in the Florida Marlins minor league system. He began his coaching career in the Gulf Coast League the same day he was released as a player by the Marlins on June 2, 1996.

After three more seasons (1997-99) with the GCL Marlins, Euky spent the 2000 season as the Pitching Coach for the Brevard County Manatees and was named the Florida organization's winner of the Carl Barger Player Development Person-of-the-Year award. His staff that season included A.J. Burnett, Dan Miceli, Brad Penny and Claudio Vargas, who won 10 games and was named to the Florida State League All-Star team.

A right-handed pitcher, Rojas pitched in the Marlins farm system in 1995 and retired as a player on June 2, 1996. He was also a member of the Cuban National Team from 1982-1994 and ranks as the all-time leader in Cuban baseball with 342 career relief appearances and 90 saves. His playing career also consisted of pitching on Olympic, World and Pan American championship teams.

Rojas served as a coach with Magallanes during the 2011-12 Venezuelan Winter League (Carlos Garcia was the manager).

Rojas visited the Latino Family Center, a support service hub for Hispanic families

RAY SEARAGE

PITCHING COACH

AGE: 56 (turns 57 on May 1)
 BORN: 5/1/55 in Deer Park, NY
 RESIDES: St. Petersburg, FL

APPOINTED: 11/24/10
 POSITION PLAYED: LHP

Ray Searage is in his second full season as the Pirates Pitching Coach. He joined the Major League coaching staff on October 17, 2009 and was named interim Pitching Coach on August 8, 2010 after Joe Kerrigan was relieved of his duties. Ray was officially named Pitching Coach on November 24.

The 2012 season marks Searage's 35th in professional baseball and his 10th with the Pittsburgh organization. He spent the 2009 off-season working as the Pitching Coach for Magallanes in the Venezuelan Winter League and did so again in 2010 until he was named Pitching Coach of the Bucs.

Searage spent seven seasons as a Pitching Coach at various levels within the Pirates minor league system, most recently with Triple-A Indianapolis in 2008-2009. He also served in the same capacity with Double-A Altoona (2006-07), Class-A Hickory (2005) and Rookie-League Williamsport (2003-2004). During his tenure with the Bucs, he also served as a coach during the Arizona Fall League in 2006 and again in 2008.

Prior to joining the Pittsburgh organization, Ray spent the 2000 and 2001 seasons as the Florida Marlins Minor League Pitching Coordinator. He also served as Pitching Coach with Orlando (Devil Rays' AA) for three years prior to joining the Marlins. Searage began his coaching career in the St. Louis Cardinals minor league system, working as a Pitching Coach with Madison (1994), Peoria (1995-1996) and Prince William (1997).

Originally selected by St. Louis in the 22nd round of the 1976 June draft, Searage made his Major League debut with the New York Mets on 6/11/81. Ray picked up his first Major League win at Wrigley Field in Chicago while making his third career appearance on 8/11/81; in the same game he singled off Dick Tidrow in his first big league plate appearance. Later in the 1981 season, he earned his first save after nailing down a 5-3 Mets victory over the Pirates at Three Rivers Stadium in Pittsburgh on September 9.

Searage pitched a total of seven big league seasons with the Mets (1981), Brewers (1984-86), White Sox (1986-87) and Dodgers (1989-90) and compiled an 11-13 record, 11 saves and a 3.50 ERA in 254 games (all in relief). He finished his professional pitching career with Edmonton (Angels' AAA) in 1992.

PERSONAL: Raymond Mark Searage...Wife's name is Vicki...Has three sons; Raymond II (10/16/80), Ryan (11/23/82) and Robbie (4/25/88)...Is a 1973 graduate of Deer Park High School on Long Island, NY... Played baseball, basketball and ran cross country while in high school...Also played baseball at West Liberty State College in West Virginia...Participated in the last two PirateFest and Caravan events.

Searage participated in the Pitch For Hope Women's Baseball Clinic in 2011

Searage was a member of the Dodgers in 1989-90

LUIS SILVERIO

15

FIRST BASE COACH

AGE: 55
BORN: 10/23/56 in Villa Gonzalez, D.R.
RESIDES: Parkland, FL

APPOINTED: 11/24/10
POSITION PLAYED: OF

After spending 35 years in the Kansas City organization, Luis Silverio joined the Pirates Major League staff on November 24, 2010. In addition to his role as the First Base Coach, he will serve as the Club's Outfield and Baserunning Coach.

Silverio was Kansas City's minor league outfield coordinator in 2010 after spending the 2009 season as the club's Special Assistant to Player Development.

Luis spent six seasons (2003-2008) on the Royals Major League coaching staff, manning the first base coaching box three years and the third base box for three.

Prior to joining Kansas City's big league staff, Silverio worked as the Coordinator of Dominican Republic Operations (2000-02) as well as serving as the Minor League Outfield Instructor in 2000-01. He also served as general manager for the Royals Dominican League affiliate in Salcedo from 1990-2002 while also overseeing the club's player development operations and scouting in the Dominican Republic and Panama. Luis also served as a scout for the organization during his tenure with Kansas City.

Originally signed by the Royals as a non-drafted free agent on November 12, 1973, Silverio played in the minor league system until 1982. During that time, he was named to the Gulf Coast League All-Star team in 1975 after leading the circuit in home runs and played on championship teams in 1976 (Waterloo), 1977 (Jacksonville) and 1978 (Omaha). During the summer of 1975, while he was leading the Gulf Coast League in home runs, his teammate, Clint Hurdle, led the league with 31 RBI for a team that went 31-18.

Silverio, who was a teammate of Hurdle with the Royals in 1978, appeared in eight games for the American League West champions that September and went 6-for-11 with two doubles, a triple, three RBI and seven runs scored. He made his Major League debut as a pinch runner at California on September 9 and collected his first big league hit the following day (in his first Major League at bat) with a single off Nolan Ryan.

After missing the 1979 season due to right knee surgery, Luis played parts of three more minor league seasons before retiring as a player following the 1982 campaign.

PERSONAL: Luis Pascual Silverio...Wife's name is Yenny...Has five children; daughters Jennifer (3/20/81), Alison (5/20/85), Julia (9/12/96) and sons Louis (12/15/93) and Luis Jr. (6/27/95)...His daughter, Jennifer, is married to former Royals shortstop Angel Berroa...Has two grandchildren; Angel Luis (11/15/06) and Angeles Maria (6/14/08)...Comes from a family of 15 (seven girls and eight boys)...Received offers from the Montreal Expos and Philadelphia Phillies in the summer of 1973 before signing with the Royals...Has participated in the last two PirateFest and Caravan events.

PIRATES WHO HAVE HIT FOR THE CYCLE

Hitting for the cycle (a single, double, triple and home run in the same game) is a feat that has been accomplished 23 times by 20 different Pittsburgh players. Fred Clarke, Arky Vaughan and Wally Westlake achieved the feat two times each. It has been accomplished just six times by a Bucco since the 1951 season and just once Jason Kendall at Three Rivers Stadium on May 19, 2000) in the city of Pittsburgh in the last 62 years.

Mark Strittmatter is in his second season with the Pirates, having joined Manager Clint Hurdle's staff as a Major League Coach on November 24, 2010. In his role, he will serve the big league coaching staff as the pitcher's hitting coach and will also assist the catchers and the hitting program.

The former catcher spent almost his entire nine-year playing career in the Colorado minor league system from 1992 until halfway thru the 2000 season. He then finished off the last few months of his career with San Diego's Triple-A affiliate before retiring. His only big league action came as a September call-up in 1998, making his Major League debut as the starting catcher on 9/3/98 at County Stadium in Milwaukee. Stritty appeared in four games for the Rockies in 1998 and went hitless in four at bats. In his minor league career, Strittmatter hit .246 with 27 home runs and 207 RBI in 556 games.

Strittmatter poses with a fan before a game along with infielder Pedro Alvarez

During his time as a player, Mark came to Coors Field in Denver during the 1998 All-Star festivities to serve as a catcher in the National League bullpen. Prior to joining the Pittsburgh coaching staff, Strittmatter spent eight years (2003-2010) as the Bullpen catcher for the Rockies, having been named to that position on October 15, 2002. He also served the Rockies as their Catching Coach in 2008 and 2009.

Strittmatter made his first All-Star appearance in 2008, as he served on the National League All-Star coaching staff led by Clint Hurdle at Yankee Stadium in July.

HEBERTO ANDRADE

Bullpen Catcher

Heberto Andrade is in his ninth season as the Pirates Bullpen Catcher. His daily responsibilities include catching pitchers' bullpen sessions prior to games and warming up pitchers during the games. He also observes what pitchers are doing mechanically and has regular communication with the Bullpen Coach and Pitching Coach. Herbie also throws to the hitters during batting practice on a daily basis.

Andrade spent three years (1986-88) as a catcher in the Chicago Cubs farm system and also played professional baseball in Venezuela, Italy and Colombia before retiring as a player in 1996.

In addition to his duties with the Pirates, Heberto has spent the last 16 years as a coach and catching instructor during the Venezuelan Winter League.

He was one of the two catchers for the 2006 All-Star Game Home Run Derby, which was held at PNC Park on July 10.

Herbie and his wife Maria reside in Venezuela and have three daughters; Maria Jesus (15), Maria Jose (14) and Maria Angel (13).

KEVIN ROACH

Video Coordinator

Kevin Roach is in his 11th season with the Pittsburgh Pirates, his eighth as the team's official video coordinator. In his role, Kevin is responsible for videotaping each Pittsburgh batter and pitcher during every game, as well as taping a majority of every opponent's games. The videos are then used by Manager Clint Hurdle, along with the coaching staff and players, to analyze strengths and weaknesses in the players performance. In addition, Kevin oversees the video operations for all minor league teams within the organization.

Prior to joining the Pirates, Roach spent five years as the video coordinator for the University of Pittsburgh Panthers basketball team. Kevin also served as an administrative assistant for the Cleveland State University men's basketball team for four years (1996-2000). While there, he coordinated the Cleveland State Benefit Golf Outing and was co-director of the Rollie Massimino Basketball Camp. Roach additionally worked with the Cleveland Browns media relations department and the Cleveland Indians video department. He also served as an administrative assistant for the Wichita State men's basketball team from 1995-1996 and the UNLV men's basketball team from 1992-1994.

A native of Syracuse, NY, Roach earned both his Master's in sport management and Bachelor's degree in communication from Cleveland State University. He also owns an Associate's degree in radio and television from Onondaga Community College. In addition, Kevin coached the Cleveland Basketball Club's AAU 15 & Under squad which advanced to the 1999 AAU National Tournament in Indianapolis.

Kevin and his wife Heather reside in Pittsburgh and have two daughters; Ella (4) and Lily (2).

SIMON FERRER

Advance Scouting Coordinator

Simon Ferrer is in his fourth season with the Pittsburgh Pirates. He was hired in January of 2009 as the Video Advance Scout at the Major League level.

In December of 2011, Simon was promoted to Advance Scouting Coordinator. His role consists of scouting, researching, and producing series reports in conjunction with Pro Scouts and the Major League staff.

Prior to joining the Pittsburgh organization, Ferrer played seven seasons of professional baseball with the Los Angeles Dodgers and Colorado Rockies at the minor league level. His first four seasons were spent as a position player where he played every position on the diamond with the exception of catcher. He was used as a pitcher during his final three seasons, throwing a total of 348.0 innings and producing a 15-22 record.

Ferrer was a battery mate of current Bucco catcher Michael McKenry while playing with Modesto in 2008. During his minor league career, Ferrer once homered from both sides of the plate in the same game. He also tossed a complete game as a pitcher. His versatility on the field brings a unique perspective to the game and to the scouting staff.

Simon was born June 24, 1980, and grew up in the Santa Ynez Valley in Southern California. He currently resides in Aspinwall, PA, with his wife Ashley. Ferrer is a 2002 graduate from Pepperdine University where he played four seasons on the baseball team and majored in Intercultural Communications.

DR. PATRICK DeMEO

Medical Director

Dr. Patrick DeMeo serves as the Medical Director for the Pittsburgh Pirates, a position he has held since the 2002 season. He began his tenure as Sports Medicine consultant and coordinator of services provided by Allegheny General Hospital for the club during the summer of 2000.

In November of 2008, DeMeo and the Pirates athletic training staff received the Dick Martin Award, an honor bestowed upon the Best Medical Staff in baseball by Baseball Prospectus. The award is named after the long-time Twins trainer who helped set the standard of excellence that today's Athletic Trainers and doctors aspire to reach.

DeMeo is currently the Chairman of the Department of Orthopaedic Surgery at Allegheny General Hospital as well as a member of the Board of Directors. In addition to his services in Pittsburgh, he serves as Assistant Professor of Orthopaedic Surgery for the Drexel University School of Medicine in Philadelphia.

He received his medical degree from Wayne State University in 1986 and served his internship and residencies at the Downstate Medical Center at the State University of New York. Dr. DeMeo, who is certified by the American Board of Orthopaedic Surgery, completed his orthopaedic residency at The Ohio State University and his Fellowship training in sports medicine at the Cleveland Clinic. He was also honored by Vectors as Pittsburgh's Physician-of-the-Year in 2002 and is the past President of Dapper Dan Charities in Pittsburgh.

Dr. DeMeo and his wife, Anita, have two children; son PJ (17) and daughter Kaitlyn (15).

Team Physician

Dr. Edward Snell is in his 13th season as the Pirates Team Physician, having joined the staff in 2000.

In addition to his work with the Bucs, Ed serves as the President for the Major League Baseball Team Physician Association and is a member of the PIAA Sports Medicine advisory board. He has also served as a medical consultant for a number of professional and amateur sports venues, including the Pittsburgh Penguins, the Pittsburgh Marathon, The Great Race, the NCAA tournament and the World Boxing Council. He was recognized as the Physician of the Year in 2009 by the PATS.

Snell is currently a senior attending staff physician with Allegheny Orthopaedic Associates. He is also a director of the Sports Medicine Fellowship Program at Allegheny General Hospital in Pittsburgh and serves as an Assistant Professor of Orthopaedics at Drexel University school of Medicine in Philadelphia.

A native of Harrisburg, PA, Dr. Snell received undergraduate degrees in mathematics and chemistry from Franklin and Marshall College in Lancaster, PA, and his medical degree from the Pennsylvania State University College of Medicine in 1991. He completed his residency at St. Margaret Memorial Hospital in Pittsburgh and his fellowship training in sports medicine at the Cleveland Clinic Foundation in Ohio, where he also served as a physician for the Cleveland Cavaliers and the Cleveland Browns. Ed is a member of the American College of Sports Medicine and the American Medical Society of Sports Medicine. Snell also serves on the PIAA Sports Advisory Committee and is the co-medical director of the athletic training program at Duquesne University.

Dr. Snell and his wife Christine have two daughters; Emily (15) and Elizabeth (11)

TODD TOMCZYK

Head Athletic Trainer

Todd Tomczyk is in his first season as the Pirates Head Athletic Trainer, having been named to the position on October 6, 2011.

Tomczyk, 36, spent the last five seasons as an assistant athletic trainer for the Los Angeles Dodgers. Prior to joining the Dodgers, he spent eight years in the Cleveland organization working as the athletic trainer for Triple-A Buffalo (2005-06), Double-A Akron (2003-04), Class-A Columbus (2000-01) and Class-A Burlington (1999). Tomczyk also served as Cleveland's minor league rehabilitation coordinator for two seasons (2001-02). He is also a certified strength and conditioning specialist.

A Bethel Park (PA) native and a 1994 graduate of Seton-La Salle High School in Pittsburgh, Todd earned his bachelor's degree in sports medicine from Duquesne University and his master's degree in exercise science from California University of Pennsylvania.

Tomczyk and his wife, Colleen, reside in Pittsburgh with their daughter, Magnolia (12/9/11).

BEN POTENZIANO

Assistant Athletic Trainer

Ben Potenziano was named the Major League Assistant Athletic Trainer on October 24, 2011.

Potenziano spent the previous eight seasons at the Major League level with the San Francisco Giants, the last seven as the club's Strength and Conditioning coach. A member of the Professional Baseball Athletic Trainers Society and National Strength and Conditioning Association, Potenziano spent five seasons in San Francisco's minor league system as the head athletic trainer with short-season Bellingham (1995), Class-A San Jose (1996), Double-A Shreveport (1997-98), garnering Texas League Trainer-of-the-Year accolades in 1997. He also worked with the Giants affiliate in the Arizona Rookie League as a rehab coordinator in 2003.

The 46-year-old Potenziano is a 1992 graduate of the University of Maine at Farmington and earned his Masters of Education from the University of Maine at Orono, where he also spent three years (1999-2002) as an assistant athletic trainer.

Potenziano and his wife, Erika, have a daughter; Olivia (13) and a son; Benjamin (11) and reside in Chandler, AZ.

AWARDS & HONORS: Two-time National League Player-of-the-Week (April 11-17, 2005 & May 7-13, 2001). Tossed no-hitter on 5/12/01. Participated in 1999 All-Star Futures Game in Boston. 1998 Florida Minor League Pitcher-of-the-Year.

2011 SEASON: Spent his third and final season with the Yankees...Won at least 10 games for the seventh straight season and for the ninth time in his career...Set career highs in home runs allowed and wild pitches while tying career high in earned runs allowed...Led the Majors in wild pitches; his 25 wild pitches marked the most in a single season since the start of the 2000's and was the fifth-highest total since 1900...Went 8-7 with a 4.15 ERA (119.1ip/55er) in 19 starts prior to the All-Star break and 3-4 with a 6.88 ERA (70.2ip/54er) after the break...Won each of his first three starts for the first time in his career and started a season with a 3-0 record for the third consecutive year...His loss on 4/25 vs. Chicago (AL) snapped a stretch of 14 undefeated April starts as a member of the Yankees (2009-11); he went 8-0 with a 4.00 ERA (87.2ip/39er) over the span...Appeared as a pinch runner at first base for Chris Dickerson in the 15th inning of the Yankees' 4-1 win at Baltimore on 5/18 - marked the first time a New York pitcher served as a pinch runner since Jarret Wright ran for Jason Giambi in the 9th inning on 7/22/06 in a 5-4 win at Toronto...Did not record a fly ball out in his start on 6/18 at Chicago (NL), accomplishing the feat for the first time in six years; last did it while with the Marlins in 2005...Struck out four batters in the 6th inning on 6/24 vs. Colorado, becoming the first Yankees pitcher in franchise history to do so; he accomplished the feat for the second time in his career (also in the 1st inning on 7/5/02 with Florida vs. New York Mets)...Became just the second pitcher in MLB history to accomplish the feat on more than one occasion, joining Chuck Finley, who did it three times (4/16/00 vs. Texas, 8/15/99 at Detroit and 5/12/99 at the Yankees)...Gave up five hits in his start on 7/29 vs. Baltimore, all extra-base hits; became just the second Yankees pitcher in the live ball era (since 1920) to toss at least 8.0 innings and allow at least five hits - all of which went for extra-bases: also Catfish Hunter on 6/24/77 vs. Boston (8.2ip/5h - two doubles and three homers)...His victory on 8/15 at Kansas City was his first in the month of August since 2008, snapping a 14-start winless stretch (since 8/29/08 with Toronto)...Made lone relief appearance (fifth career) in his last outing on 9/28 at Tampa Bay, retiring the only batter he faced...Started and won Game Four of the American League Division Series at Detroit on 10/4 (5.2ip/1er).

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

2010: Set career high in losses...Tied for third in the Majors and ranked second in the A.L. in wild pitches...Led the Major Leagues in hit batters and set a single season career high in that category; was also the club's second-highest single-season total since the franchise was established in New York in 1903 behind Jack Warhop's 26 in 1909...Began season with a 4-0 record and a 1.99 ERA over his first six starts, marking the first time he won his first four decisions of a season...Did not allow an earned run in his first 18.1ip at Yankee Stadium; streak was snapped on 5/14 vs. Minnesota in his third start at home, when he surrendered a 5th-inning solo home run to Joe Mauer...Compiled a 21.0-inning stretch without allowing an earned run between 4/23 and 5/9...Made his 250th career start on 5/4 vs. Baltimore, recording the win in a 4-1 Yankees victory...Also recorded his 1500th career strikeout on 5/4...Left his start on 7/17 vs. Tampa Bay after 2.0ip due to lacerations on his right hand...Recorded 21st career complete game on 8/15 at Kansas City (8.0ip/1er) in a 1-0 New York loss - was his fourth straight loss when throwing a complete game...Went 0-3 with a 5.83 ERA (29.1ip/19er) in his final six regular season starts, beginning on 9/6...Made one postseason start (ALCS Game 4 vs. Texas) and suffered the loss (6.0ip/5er).

2009: Spent first full season with the Yankees...Registered second-highest career win total behind his 18 with Toronto in 2008...Ranked eighth in the American League in strikeouts and second in the Major Leagues in walks (Arizona's Doug Davis led with 103)...Tied Felix Hernandez for the Major League lead in wild pitches...Was victorious in debut with Yankees on 4/9 at Baltimore (5.1ip/2er)...Retired 18 of the first 19 batters he faced and carried a no-hitter through 6.0 innings in his second start on 4/14 at Tampa Bay...Went winless over seven starts from 4/19 to 5/22, his longest stretch without a victory in a single season since his last seven starts of the 2005 season with Florida...Went 8-2 with a 2.08 ERA (69.1ip/16er) over an 11-start stretch from 5/27 to 7/27, limiting his opponents to three earned runs or less in each outing...Was suspended for six games by MLB on 6/4 for "intentionally throwing a pitch in the head area of Nelson Cruz of the Rangers" during the top of the 5th inning on 6/2...Served a reduced five-game suspension from 6/21-26...Struck out the side on nine pitches in the 3rd inning on 6/20 at Florida (Johnson, Coughlan and Bonifacio - all swinging); became the 40th pitcher all-time to accomplish the feat and just the third Yankee, joining Al Downing (1967) and Ron Guidry (1984)...Had an 8-4 (.667) record at the All-Star break - his best career winning percentage at the break...Picked up career win #100 in his final start of the regular season on 10/4 at Tampa Bay...Made his postseason debut, going 1-1 with a 5.27 ERA in five starts...Did not draw a decision in first career postseason start on 10/9 in Game 2 of the A.L.D.S. vs. Minnesota (6.0ip/3h/1er/5bb/6so)...Earned the win in his first World Series start on 10/29 in Game 2, limiting the Phillies to one earned run and four hits in 7.0ip.

2008: Posted career highs in wins, games, starts, innings pitched and strikeouts in final season with Toronto...Led the A.L. in strikeouts and strikeouts per 9.0ip (9.39)...Shared league lead in starts, ranked third in innings pitched and tied for fourth in wins...Had a career-high six games with 10-or-more strikeouts...Became only the third Toronto pitcher to record at least 200 strikeouts in a season, joining Roy Halladay (2003 & 2006) and Roger Clemens (1997-98)...Also became the second Blue Jay to lead the league in strikeouts, joining Clemens (1997-98)...Went 12-3 with a 3.12 ERA and 141 strikeouts in final 19 starts...Won eight of his last nine decisions...Made his lone relief appearance (fourth career) on 4/16 vs. Texas, allowing 2er in 1.0ip and recording the loss in the 14-inning contest...Did not allow an earned run over 17.0 consecutive innings from 9/9-19...Was charged with just four earned runs in his final four starts, going 2-0 with a 1.29 ERA.

2007: Led Toronto pitching staff in strikeouts...Ranked fourth in the A.L. with 9.56 K's/per 9.0ip ratio...Limited opponents to a .214 batting average (131-for-611); only Baltimore's Erik Bedard (.212) had a lower opponents average among A.L. starters...Was placed on the 15-day disabled list on 6/13 with a right shoulder strain...Was reinstated on 6/27 and made one start on 6/28 at Minnesota (4.0ip/5er) before returning to the D.L. the next day with the same injury...Made one rehab start with Triple-A Syracuse before being returned from rehab and reinstated on 8/12...Went 5-2 with a 3.01 ERA in his final 10 starts after being reinstated.

2006: Was limited to 21 starts with Toronto due to two separate stints on the disabled list with scar tissue break-up caused from previous elbow surgery...Began season on the D.L. and made two rehab starts with Class-A Dunedin before being reinstated on 4/15...Made two starts with the Jays (0-1, 6.30 ERA) before returning to the D.L. on 4/22...Made one rehab start each with Double-A New Hampshire and Syracuse before being returned from rehab and reinstated again on 6/22...Picked up his first victory with the Blue Jays on 6/27 vs. Washington, throwing his ninth career shutout...Became just the third Toronto pitcher to record a shutout for their first Blue Jays victory, joining Paul Mirabella (4/17/80) and Tom Underwood (5/9/78)...Posted a 9-5 record and a 3.86 ERA in 15 starts after the All-Star break, leading the Toronto staff in second-half wins, starts, innings pitched (100.1) and strikeouts (84).

2005: Established Marlins career marks for wins (49), losses (50), shutouts (eight), complete games (14), strikeouts (753), games started (131) and innings pitched (853.2) in final season with Florida...Tied for third in the N.L. in complete games...Recorded back-to-back complete game victories on 4/12 vs. Philadelphia and 4/17 at New York (NL) and earned "Player-of-the-Week" honors...Limited Tampa Bay to two hits in a 9.0-inning shutout on 6/26 at Tropicana Field...Matched his franchise record with 14 strikeouts on 7/6 vs. Milwaukee...Won a career-high seven consecutive starts from 7/19 to 8/19, recording a 1.71 ERA over the stretch (52.1ip/7er)...Went 0-6 with 5.87 ERA in his final seven starts, marking his longest career losing streak...Recorded triples with his first two hits of season, becoming the first pitcher to hit two triples in a season since Mike Hampton tallied three with Houston in 1999...Connected off Kevin Correia for third career home run on 7/24 at San Francisco.

2004: Began season on the disabled list, recovering from "Tommy John" surgery (performed on 4/29/03)...First pitched on 5/18 in an extended spring training game against the Cardinals...Also made a pair of rehab starts before being returned from rehab and reinstated on 6/2...Went 6-0 with a 2.80 ERA and a .188 opponents average in his 11 home games and 1-6 with a 5.09 ERA and a .291 opponents average in his nine road games (eight starts)...Established a Marlins club record with 14 strikeouts in his victory on 8/29 vs. Colorado...Won each of his last four starts from 8/24 to 9/12 and posted a 1.84 ERA in that stretch.

2003: Made four starts for the eventual World Series-champion Marlins before undergoing season-ending "Tommy John" surgery on 4/29...Began season on the disabled list (retroactive to 3/21) with synovitis in his right elbow...Was reinstated from the D.L. on 4/9 and made the start that night vs. New York (NL), recording a no-decision (7.0ip/2er) in the Marlins victory...Made four starts before landing on the D.L. again on 4/26...Had surgery to repair the torn elbow ligament performed by Dr. James Andrews in Birmingham.

2002: Posted the third-highest season strikeout total and the fourth 200-plus strikeout season in Florida franchise history...Led the Majors in shutouts (all coming at home)...Tied for third in the Majors with seven complete games, one behind co-leaders Bartolo Colon and Randy Johnson...Ranked sixth in the National League and seventh in the Majors in strikeouts...Struck out eight or more batters in 15 of his 29 starts (51.7%)...Posted the third-lowest ERA in club history...Ranked second in the N.L. and fourth in the Majors in lowest opponents batting average (.209; 153-for-732)...Made his first active Opening Day roster...Tossed a four-hit shutout in his third start on 4/14 vs. Atlanta...Recorded a three-hit shutout on 6/15 vs. Tampa Bay...Connected off Philadelphia's Robert Person for second career home run on 6/25...Was on the 15-day disabled list from 8/19-9/14 with a right acute bone bruise...Made four appearances after being reinstated, including his first two big league relief appearances on 9/14 vs. Atlanta (1.0ip/3er) and 9/17 vs. Montreal (1.2ip/2er); struck out five of the eight Montreal batters he faced.

2001: Began season on Florida's 15-day disabled list with a stress fracture to the fifth metatarsal in his right foot...Made two rehab starts with Single-A Brevard County before being returned from rehab and reinstated on 5/1...Made his season debut on 5/7 at Los Angeles (NL) and recorded the loss despite allowing just one earned run in 6.0ip...Tossed the third no-hitter in Marlins history in his second start of the season on 5/12 at San Diego, striking out seven and walking nine in a 3-0 win...Was the 203rd no-hitter since 1900, the 98th in N.L. history and the second in the Majors in 2001...Became the third Florida pitcher at the time (also Al Leiter on 5/11/96 vs. Colorado and Kevin Brown on 6/10/97 at San Francisco) to accomplish the feat...Also tied the club record for walks in a game on 5/12 and became the first pitcher in the modern era to issue nine walks in a complete game, nine-inning no-hitter...His 10 baserunners allowed were second only to Cincinnati's Jim Maloney, who surrendered 12 baserunners in a 10-inning no-hitter at Chicago (NL) on 8/9/65...Earned N.L. "Player-of-the-Week" honors for the week of 5/7-13.

DID YOU KNOW...

That Arky Vaughan is one of only five players to hit two home runs in the same All-Star Game. The Bucco shortstop was the first; smacking a pair in the 1941 Mid-Summer Classic. Ted Williams (1946), Al Rosen (1954), Willie McCovey (1969) and Gary Carter (1981) have also accomplished the feat.

DID YOU KNOW...

That a Bucco player has hit for the cycle in the city of Pittsburgh just once in the last 62 years. Jason Kendall was the last one to do it in Pittsburgh, when he accomplished the feat at Three Rivers Stadium on May 19, 2000. Prior to that, Wally Westlake was the last member of the Pirates to hit for the cycle at home when he did so on June 14, 1949, against the Boston Braves at Forbes Field.

HISTORY

PITTSBURGH PIRATES TEAM HISTORY

Now in their 126th National League season, the Pittsburgh Pirates own a history filled with World Championships, legendary players and some of baseball's most dramatic games and moments.

The Pirates' roots in Pittsburgh actually date back to April 15, 1876, when the Pittsburgh Alleghenys brought professional baseball to the city by playing their first game at Union Park. In 1877, the Alleghenys were accepted into the minor-league International Association, but disbanded the following year.

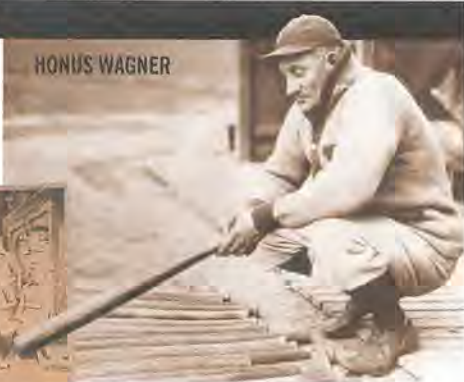

Baseball returned to Pittsburgh for good in 1882 when the Alleghenys reformed and joined the American Association, a rival of the National League. After the 1886 season, the Kansas City franchise was expelled from the N.L. and Pittsburgh President William A. Nimmick's application for membership was accepted.

On April 30, 1887, the Alleghenys defeated the defending league-champion Chicago White Stockings, 6-2, before a crowd of nearly 10,000 at Recreation Park. The victorious beginning was not an indication of things to come, however, as the team managed to finish higher than fifth only once in the 13 remaining seasons of the century. In 1890, the Alleghenys' roster was demolished when key players jumped to a new rival to the National League — the Players League. They staggered to a club-record 113 losses as the two leagues engaged in a bitter battle over talent.

When the Players League folded after only one season, all players were expected to return to the clubs they played for in 1889. But in 1891 Pittsburgh signed Louis Bierbauer, a second baseman with Brooklyn of the Players League who had spent the previous four seasons with the Philadelphia Athletics. The A's and their American Association brethren immediately accused Pittsburgh of "pirating" Bierbauer away from them. Pittsburgh kept the player and the nickname and became known as the Pirates thereafter.

The fortunes of the Pirates turned in 1900 when the National League reduced its membership from 12 to eight teams. As part of the move, Barney Dreyfuss, owner of the defunct Louisville club, acquired controlling interest of the Pirates. In the largest player transaction in Pirate history, the Hall-of-Fame owner brought 14 players with him from the Louisville roster, including Hall of Famers Honus Wagner, Fred Clarke and Rube Waddell — plus standouts Deacon Phillippe, Chief Zimmer, Claude Ritchey and Tommy Leach. All would play significant roles as the Pirates became the league's dominant franchise, winning pennants in 1901, 1902 and 1903 and a World Championship in 1909.

HONUS WAGNER

1885 ALLEGHENYS

Wagner, dubbed "The Flying Dutchman," was the game's premier player during the decade, winning seven batting titles and leading the majors in hits (1,850) and RBI (956) from 1900-1909. One of the pioneers of the game, Dreyfuss is sometimes called "The Father of the World Series" because he challenged Henry Killilea, the owner of the American League champion Boston Pilgrims, to a post-season playoff in 1903 to determine who was baseball's best team. On October 1, 1903, Phillippe defeated the legendary Cy Young, 7-3, in the first World Series game ever played. Boston, however, later emerged as the Series winner, overcoming a three-games-to-one deficit to win the best-of-nine competition, five games to three.

The Pirates finished as runner-up three times in the next five years before getting another shot at a World Series title in 1909. The Bucs won a club-record 110 games that year with three pitchers — Howie Camnitz (25), Vic Willis (22) and Lefty Leifield (19) combining for 66 victories. The Series pitted the league's batting champions — Wagner and Detroit's Ty Cobb against each other, but rookie pitcher Babe Adams, who was 12-3 during the regular season, emerged as the Series hero for the Pirates.

While Camnitz, Willis and Leifield failed to win a game, Adams won three, including a six-hit shutout in the seventh and deciding game. It was the last of four titles the Pirates would win under Clarke, who managed the club until 1915.

The 1909 season also marked the beginning of a new era in ballparks as the Pirates christened Forbes Field on June 30 that year. Since 1891, the Pirates had called Exposition Park — which was located on virtually the same site as Three Rivers Stadium — their home. Described as the "Hialeah of Ballparks" when it opened, Forbes Field would remain the home of the Pirates for six decades and would host many great moments.

Pittsburgh sank to the league's second division for most of the next decade, but by the early 1920's — with an influx of outstanding talent which included future Hall of Famers Pie Traynor, Kiki Cuyler, Rabbit Maranville and Max Carey — Pittsburgh was again a contender. After three straight third-place finishes from 1922 to 1924, the Pirates won the N.L. title by eight and a half games over the second-place New York Giants in 1925.

The Series matched Pittsburgh against the Washington Senators, who jumped out to a three-games-to-one lead. The Pirates, however, bounced back to win the final three games and the Series. Their miraculous comeback included a 15-hit pounding of Hall of Famer Walter "Big Train" Johnson in Game Seven.

In 1926, a rookie named Paul Waner joined the Bucs and batted .336. A year later, his brother Lloyd joined him and belted out 223 hits for a club rookie record .355 average and the Pirates were again National League champions. Paul, who was nicknamed "Big Poison" — batted .300 or better 14 times, captured three batting titles and collected 200 or more hits in eight different seasons. He was named the league's Most Valuable Player in 1927 and went on to compile 3,152 hits and a .333 career batting average. Lloyd — who was tagged "Little Poison" — hit .300 or better in 10 of his first 12 seasons, compiled a career mark of .316 and accumulated 2,450 hits. Both were elected to the Hall of Fame.

The 1927 World Series featured the Pirates against New York's famed "Murderer's Row" with Babe Ruth and Lou Gehrig who swept Pittsburgh in four straight games. The next 33 years, Pirate fans went without a pennant winner, although they were not denied their share of great players and great moments.

The Waners were consistently among baseball's premier hitters during the 1930's with Paul amassing more hits (1,959) during the decade than any player in baseball. Traynor was one of the era's best all-around players and is generally regarded as one of the finest third basemen ever to play the game. Shortstop Arky Vaughan topped the .300-mark in each of his 10 seasons with the Pirates (1932-1941) and his .385 average in 1935 has gone unequalled by any National League performer. He, too, is enshrined at Cooperstown.

RALPH KINER

Hall of Famer Ralph Kiner won or shared the N.L. home run title in each of the seven seasons that he wore a Pirates uniform (1946-52) — which is a streak that has never been matched in either league. In 1956, Pirate first baseman Dale Long hit home runs in a record eight straight games between May 19th and May 28th (that mark was matched by Don Mattingly in 1987 and Ken Griffey Jr. in 1993). Three years later, Harvey Haddix hurled what many consider the greatest game ever pitched when he retired 36 straight Milwaukee Braves hitters over 12 innings on May 26, 1959. The same year, ElRoy Face won 17 straight games in relief.

Though the Pirates failed to finish higher than seventh from 1950 through 1957, the foundation for another championship was being put into place. Standout players were added throughout the decade, including 2001 Hall-of-Fame inductee Bill Mazeroski, Dick Groat, Vernon Law, Bob Friend, Bill Virdon, Face and Hall-of-Fame right fielder Roberto Clemente.

In 1956, Pirate owner John Galbreath hired Joe L. Brown as general manager. With the club languishing in last place at 36-67 midway through the 1957 campaign, Brown promoted coach Danny Murtaugh to field manager.

Within three seasons, the Bucs were again champions of the National League and again matched against the powerful New York Yankees in the World Series. This time the Bronx Bombers featured Mickey Mantle and Roger Maris.

DANNY MURTAUGH

BILL MAZEROSKI 16 40

The 1960 World Series remains one of the most incredible post-season encounters ever on record. The Yankees won Game Two, Game Three and Game Six by a combined score of 38-3, but the Pirates used great pitching, defense and timely hitting to stretch the Series to a seventh game at Forbes Field. Pittsburgh took a 9-7 lead into the ninth — thanks to Hal Smith's three-run homer in the eighth — but the Yankees came up with two runs in the top of the ninth to tie the score. The game and the Series ended, however, in the bottom of the ninth as Mazeroski belted what is perhaps the most dramatic home run in baseball history off Ralph Terry. Mazeroski was the only player in baseball history ever to end a World Series with a home run until Joe Carter of Toronto accomplished the feat in Game Six of the 1993 fall classic.

During the 1960's, Clemente established himself among the game's elite players. He collected more hits (1,877) than anyone during the decade and would go on to reach the 3,000-hit plateau in 1972. During his marvelous career, he topped the .300 mark 13 times, won four batting titles and was named the National League's Most Valuable Player in 1966.

During the 1970's, the Pirates were again among baseball's premier teams. In that 10-year span, they won six division titles and finished as low as third only once. In the first 25 years of divisional play, the Bucs won more games (2,100) and finished first more often (nine times) than any other N.L. East club. The Pirates put together a 2,100-1,878 record during that period (.528 winning %).

ROBERTO CLEMENTE

The Pirates captured two more World Championships during the 1970's. Their 1971 victory over Baltimore was a showcase for Clemente, who batted .414 and received the Series MVP award. In 1979, the Pirates became only the fourth team in history to erase a three-games-to-one deficit when they again bested the Orioles in seven games. Hall of Famer Willie Stargell took home MVP honors — as he did during the regular season — with a .400 batting average, three home runs (including the Series' deciding blow in Game Seven) and seven RBI. It was a fitting conclusion to the decade for Stargell, who was the leading homerun hitter of the 1970's (296). While the Pirates brought two world championships back to Pittsburgh during the 1970s, the Pittsburgh Steelers also came to prominence. The Steelers won four Super Bowls during the 70s, which, coupled with the Pirates success, helped garner Pittsburgh the "City of Champions" label.

On October 2, 1985, the Galbreath family and Warner Communications sold the club to Pittsburgh Associates; a group of private investors who were committed to keeping the team in Pittsburgh.

Pittsburgh Associates was made up of 10 investors representing six corporations, three individuals and Carnegie Mellon University. The group included the Aluminum Company of America, Mellon Bank, PNC Financial Corporation, PPG Industries, USX Corporation, Westinghouse Electric Company, Eugene and Raymond Litman, John McConnell and Harvey M. Walken.

After several lean years in the mid-eighties, the Pirates returned to contention in 1988 when they finished in second place and broke the club's 28-year-old attendance mark.

With players like Barry Bonds, Doug Drabek, Bobby Bonilla and Andy Van Slyke, Pittsburgh started the decade of the 1990's in fine fashion, winning the N.L. East title three straight years. The Bucs became the first team to win three straight division titles since the Philadelphia Phillies accomplished the feat between 1976 and 1978. Bonds captured MVP honors in 1990 and 1992, while Drabek won the Cy Young award in '90. Manager Jim Leyland took home N.L. Manager-of-the-Year honors in both 1990 and 1992. In his 11 seasons at the helm, Leyland won 849 games, placing him third on the club's All-Time Managerial win list.

DOUG DRABEK

FIRST NIGHT GAME
in the History of the World Series

Pittsburgh was on the brink of a World Series berth in both the 1991 and 1992 season, but the Pirates lost the seventh and deciding game each year to the Atlanta Braves. In 1992, Pittsburgh came within three outs of the Fall Classic. But in the bottom of the ninth inning at Atlanta's Fulton County Stadium, the Braves triumphed with three runs and won the game 3-2 and the series, four-games-to-three.

The people of Pittsburgh and the surrounding Tri-State area responded well to the club's success in the nineties as the Pirates drew in excess of two million fans in both 1990 and 1991. A crowd of 59,568, the largest ever to watch a professional baseball game in Pittsburgh, witnessed the 65th Major League Baseball All-Star Game, played at Three Rivers Stadium on July 12, 1994. In one of the most thrilling All-Star Games ever to be played, the National League prevailed over the American League in extra frames. Fred McGriff helped send the game into extra innings when he delivered a two-run, pinch-hit home run off Lee Smith in the bottom of the ninth inning that tied the score. After the American League failed to score in the top of the 10th inning, the National League broke it's six-game losing streak when Tony Gwynn scored on a double by Moises Alou.

A new chapter of Pirate history began on February 14, 1996, when Kevin McClatchy and his group of investors purchased the storied franchise from Pittsburgh Associates.

Picked by many publications to finish last in 1997, the Pirates remained in the division race until the final weekend of the season and the club was named USA Today's "Organization of the Year" at the conclusion of the season. Major League Baseball also underwent a change in 1997 with the birth of Interleague play. That season, the Pirates welcomed the Kansas City Royals to Three Rivers Stadium on June 13 for the club's first interleague matchup, which Pittsburgh won by a score of 4-1. While the Bucs contended for the division during the entire season, one of the most memorable moments of the season came on July 12, 1997. That night, pitchers Francisco Cordova and Ricardo Rincon thrilled Pirates fans with the only combined, extra-inning no-hitter in major league history. The game ended in the bottom of the 10th inning when Mark Smith delivered a three-run home run for the 3-0 win.

The 2000 season brought an end to a full century of great moments, a 100-year period which began with three straight National League pennants and ended with an aura of hope and dreams of more championships to come. With a new home on the horizon, the Bucs said goodbye to Three Rivers Stadium with their final game ever played there on October 1, 2000. Three no-hitters, Clemente's 3000th hit, two All-Star Games, countless playoff games, two World Championships and endless summer evenings can be associated with no other place in the history of Pittsburgh than Three Rivers Stadium.

The Pirates closed out their 30-year tenure at Three Rivers Stadium with a 10-9 loss to the Chicago Cubs in the final game of what was the club's home since 1970. Pittsburgh native John Wehner smacked the final home run in the history of the ballpark off Chicago's Jon Lieber. Ironically, Wehner also grounded out to third base for the final out ever at Three Rivers. With the loss, Pittsburgh closed out Three Rivers Stadium with a record of 1,324 wins and 1,082 losses.

In the early morning of February 11, 2001, Pittsburgh bid farewell to Three Rivers when the home of the Pirates and Steelers was imploded.

PNC Park officially opened its gates on April 9, 2001. Regarded by many as the best ballpark ever built, PNC Park is an intimate two-level structure which offers all fans dramatic views of the downtown skyline as well as the natural grass playing surface. After touring all 30 major league ballparks during the summer of 2003, ESPN.com ranked PNC Park as the best in baseball.

The anticipation and joy of a new ballpark turned to sorrow, when on the morning of the first regular season game at PNC Park, a beloved member of the Pirates family was lost when Willie Stargell passed away on April 9, 2001.

Despite suffering 100 losses for just the seventh time in club history in 2001, fans came out in record numbers as the Bucs played in front of 19 sellouts and a total of 2,436,139 customers during the inaugural season at PNC Park.

On June 25, 2002, the Pirates registered the 9,000th win in the history of the franchise with a 4-1 victory over the Montreal Expos, thus becoming just the fourth club to produce 9,000 wins.

The Pirates have had a long list of sluggers in their history and Brian Giles added his name to that list during his five seasons in a Bucco uniform. He hit 30 or more home runs in each of his first four seasons with the club, just one of three Pirates to hit 30 or more long balls in four consecutive years (also Hall-of-Famers Ralph Kiner and Willie Stargell). His 165 home runs with Pittsburgh rank sixth in club history.

Catcher Jason Kendall spent each of his first nine big league seasons in a Pittsburgh uniform after being selected in the first round of the 1992 June draft. In that time, he made 1,205 appearances behind the plate. That figure ranks first all-time in the annals of the club, 50 games ahead of George Gibson, who caught for the Bucs from 1906 thru 1915. Kendall surpassed Gibson's 90-year-old record in Los Angeles on August 3, 2004.

JASON KENDALL

For the first time in team history a Pittsburgh player captured Rookie-of-the-Year honors as outfielder Jason Bay took home the honors in 2004. A two-time National League All-Star, Bay was a fan favorite at the 2006 All-Star Game in Pittsburgh.

The national spotlight shined once again on the city of Pittsburgh during the 2006 season as the Major League Baseball All-Star Game was played at PNC Park, marking the fifth time the event has been held in the Steel City. The American League won a dramatic 3-2 decision in the Midsummer Classic as the Pirates became the first team in baseball history to host the All-Star Game in three different venues.

Also in 2006, Freddy Sanchez added his name to the club's record list of 25 batting champions as his .344 average led the National League. Sanchez batted out 200 hits in 2006 and led the N.L. with 53 doubles while being named to his first of two All-Star teams.

On January 18, 2007, Bob Nutting officially assumed control of the ballclub, thus becoming only the sixth principal owner in the Pirates storied history. Following a deep look into the team's operations, Nutting has built a fundamentally different organization by introducing Frank Connelly as the team's new president on September 13, 2007 and, in-turn, Neal Huntington as the team's new general manager on September 25, 2007. From there the new leadership team has made significant changes to each of the three major areas – Major League manager/coaching staff, Scouting Director and Farm Director, with the goal of building an organization that can consistently compete.

In the last few seasons, fans witnessed the debut of 2005 first-round draft pick Andrew McCutchen and the emergence of many other young players, including Pedro Alvarez, Neil Walker and Jose Tabata.

Bucco fans produced record crowds in 2011 as the Pirates played host to 17 sellouts and drew 1.9 million fans for just the fourth time in team history.

HISTORY

POST-SEASON

DEVELOPMENT

1902

1900-1910: The jersey of this period was short-sleeved with no trim except for a dark blue collar. Stockings were dark blue with red stripes and the cap was blue with a white "P". A "PBC" monogram signifying Pittsburgh Baseball Club was also added to the left sleeve later in the decade.

1912

1910-1920: The regular collar was replaced by the short, stand-up "cadet" style with a button collar. Pinstriped material was also introduced. As the team nickname became more accepted, "Pirates" was displayed in capital letters down the button lapel (1912). The cadet-style collar soon gave way to a tapered collar extension, but the button lapel remained solid dark blue with white buttons and a "P-P" straddling the top button (1913-14). Later in this decade, the cap had piping and also included a "P" in white or red.

1921-1932: Standard white uniforms were worn at home and gray on the road with simple graphics and solid colors. The 1925 & '27 championship teams wore the standard capital "P" on its sleeves but not on the jersey.

1921-1932: The Pirate uniforms brightened up considerably with added colors, trim features and graphics. The name "Pirates" was placed across the jersey in an arc of fancy red and blue capital letters. Solid blue belts were included and piping trim on the uniforms included blue and red. A red "P" was also placed on the solid blue cap.

1933-1937: The name "Pirates" appeared on the jersey in script lettering with underline flourish.

1938: A zipper front replaced the button-down jersey.

1940

1939-1946: The uniform abandons the traditional "P" or "Pirates" for an emblem of an actual buccaneer. The patch was placed on the left breast of both the home and road jerseys. This was the first time an emblem of the team's nickname was ever worn on a game jersey.

1948: The team replaced the traditional blue and red with the present day black and gold. The script "Pirates" and "Pittsburgh" was replaced with the block lettering that you still see today. The cap became solid black with a gold "P".

1953: The word "Pittsburgh" is removed from the road jersey, and replaced with "Pirates".

1957: The Pirates became the second team to begin wearing sleeveless jerseys.

1962: Numbers were introduced on the front of the home and road jerseys and have been there ever since.

1970: The Pirates became the first major league club to adopt the new double-knit fabric uniforms, which they debuted at the first game at the new Three Rivers Stadium in July. The jersey became a pullover with no button or zipper. The pants contained a built-in sash belt. The cap crown was mustard yellow with a black bill. Within two years, nearly every other club was wearing a double-knit uniform.

Baseball uniform illustrations from 1900-1994 are from Marc Okkonen's Baseball Uniforms of the 20th Century; from 1995-today are courtesy of Major League Baseball Properties

1977

1990

1976: The Pirates, as well as other clubs, commemorate the National League's centennial by wearing the old striped, pill-box style caps. The Bucs wore yellow caps with a black bill and black stripes.

1977-1979: Abandoned were the traditional white and gray uniforms in exchange for combinations of white, gold, black and pinstriping. The caps became black with yellow stripes. Players' last names appear on the back of the jerseys for the first time.

1985: The Pirates returned to the basic white and gray uniform.

1987: The Pirates replaced the striped cap in favor of the traditional standard black round crown type.

1990: A script "Pittsburgh" is added to the gray road uniform for the first time since 1952.

1995: The Pirates return to button-down jerseys and belted pants.

1995: Going back to a more traditional look, the Pirates removed the names from the back of the jerseys.

1996: That change lasted only one year, as the Pirates return the names to the back of the jerseys.

1997: The organization introduces a complete new look by wearing an alternate home jersey as well as bringing the color "red" back into the uniform for the first time since 1946.

2001: With the opening of PNC Park, the club enters a "New Era of Baseball." The team re-introduces the sleeveless jersey as part of both the home and road uniform. The Pirates also become the first team ever to wear a cap with a red underbill (cap worn with the alternate home jersey only).

2005: The Pirates re-introduce pinstripes to the uniform. The alternate uniforms are worn on Sunday home games.

2007: The club introduces a red, sleeveless jersey to be worn on selected home dates.

2009: The Pirates re-introduce sleeves to their home and road jerseys and added a black alternate jersey. The sleeveless pinstriped jersey was worn on Sundays through the end of 2010.

BOLD FACE CAPS - Living

In the 125 seasons in the National League, 1745 players have worn the uniform of the Pittsburgh Pirates. As of February 6, 2012, 768 are living.

DID YOU KNOW

The oldest living Pirate is Mike Sandlock, who turns 97 on October 17. The catcher/infielder made his debut on September 19, 1942 for the Boston Braves and spent his final season (1953) with the Pirates.

The second oldest living Pirate is Steve Nagy, who turns 93 on May 28. The left-handed pitcher made his debut on April 20, 1947 for the Pirates and made his final appearance with the Washington Senators on June 23, 1950.

PIRATES ALL-TIME NUMERICAL ROSTER

Like many teams, the Pirates added uniform numbers to jerseys sometime between 1929-32.

PIRATES RETIRED UNIFORM NUMBERS

BILLY MEYER

RETIRED 1954

Born January 14, 1892 in Knoxville, TN, died March 31, 1957 in Knoxville. Threw and batted righthanded. A catcher with the White Sox and Athletics (1913, 1916-17), Meyer won eight pennants as a manager of minor league clubs from 1926 through 1947 before becoming Pirates manager in 1948. Known for his rapport with players, fans and the press, Meyer managed in Pittsburgh for five seasons, compiling a record of 317-452. He was The Sporting News Manager-of-the-Year in 1948 when the Bucs compiled a record of 83-71. Following his five-year tenure as Pirates manager, Meyer was a Pittsburgh scout for three years.

RETIRED 1987

Born October 27, 1922 in Santa Rita, NM. Threw and batted righthanded. A Hall of Famer (inducted in 1975), Kiner ranks second on club's all-time home run list (301). Won or shared N.L. home run title in each of his seven full seasons with Pittsburgh (1946-1952), a streak unmatched in either league. Hit a club-record 54 homers in 1949 and had a club-record .567 slugging pct. in Pirates career. Was the key player in 10-man deal with the Cubs on June 4, 1953. Played with Cubs (1953-54) and Cleveland (1955) before back ailment ended his career prematurely. Hit 369 home runs in 10-year career, averaging 7.1 per 100 at-bats, which ranks among the best in major league history.

WILLIE STARGELL

FIRST BASE

RETIRED 1982

Born March 6, 1941 in Earlsboro, OK, died April 9, 2001 in Wilmington, NC. Threw and batted lefthanded. "Pops" compiled a remarkable career in a 21-year span from 1962 through 1982 with the Pirates. In 2,360 games he batted .282 with 475 home runs, seven home runs in post-season play, and 1,540 RBI. The Bucs' all-time home run, RBI and extra base hits king, Willie also ranks in the Pirates' top 10 in games, at bats, runs, hits, singles, doubles and total bases. Willie was a seven-time All-Star pick. In 1979 he was the N.L.'s co-MVP and the MVP in the LCS and World Series. Stargell became the 17th player elected to the Hall of Fame in his first year of eligibility (inducted in 1988).

SECOND BASE

RETIRED 1987

Born September 5, 1936 in Wheeling, WV. Threw and batted righthanded. His well-chronicled home run against the Yankees gave Pittsburgh the 1960 World Championship. During his 17-year career with Pittsburgh (1956-1972), the Hall-of-Famer won eight Gold Glove awards and earned a reputation as one of the finest fielding second basemen in the history of the game. Among the major league records for second basemen "Maz" holds are: most seasons leading league in assists (nine), most seasons leading league in double plays (eight), most double plays in a single season (161 in 1966) and most career double plays (1,707). A seven-time N.L. All-Star, he compiled a .260 lifetime average with 138 home runs and 853 runs batted in. Mazeroski was inducted into Hall of Fame in 2001.

PAUL WANER

RETIRED 2007

Born April 16, 1903 in Harrah, OK, died August 29, 1965 in Sarasota, FL. Threw and batted lefthanded. One of the most dominating players in baseball during his 15 years with the Pirates (1926-1939), Waner led all major league players in hits (1,959) during the decade of the '30's. He batted .336 in his rookie campaign of 1926 and became the first player in team history to capture the N.L. Most Valuable Player award a year later. A four-time All-Star and three-time batting champion, "Big Poison" ended his career with 3,152 hits. His .340 average with Pittsburgh ranks first in club history and he ranks among the top 10 in 11 other offensive categories. Waner was inducted into the Hall of Fame in 1952.

PIE TRAYNOR

THIRD BASE

RETIRED 1972

Born November 11, 1899 in Framingham, MA, died March 16, 1972 in Pittsburgh. Threw and batted righthanded. Harold (Pie) Traynor was one of the finest third basemen in major league history, earning that reputation in a 17-year playing career spent entirely with the Pirates (1920-1935, 1937). Regarded as an outstanding defensive player, Traynor was also adept with the bat, compiling a lifetime .320 average. While he hit just 58 home runs, he managed to drive in 1,273 runs. Pie ranks in the Pirates' top 10 in games, at bats, runs, hits, singles, doubles, triples, total bases, RBI, extra-base hits, batting average and stolen bases. The Hall of Famer (inducted in 1948) also managed the Pirates from 1934 through 1939.

RETIRED 1987

Born August 18, 1934 in Carolina, P.R., died December 31, 1972 in San Juan, P.R. Threw and batted righthanded. A Hall of Famer (inducted in 1973), Roberto Clemente was selected by the Pirates in the player draft when the Brooklyn Dodgers left him unprotected after the 1954 season, his first as a professional. For the next 18 years Clemente starred in the Pirates outfield. He won four N.L. batting crowns and batted .317 in his career, with 240 home runs and 1,305 RBI. He also won 12 Gold Glove Awards. He hit safely in all seven games in both the 1960 and 1971 World Series, winning the Series MVP Award in 1971 when he batted .414 with two homers against Baltimore. Clemente was a 12-time All-Star and the N.L. MVP in 1966. He ranks in the Pirates' top 10 in 12 offensive categories. He died with four others when a plane carrying supplies to earthquake-stricken Nicaragua crashed.

HONUS WAGNER

SHORTSTOP

RETIRED 1952

Born February 24, 1874 in Carnegie, PA, died December 6, 1955 in Carnegie. Threw and batted righthanded. One of five players originally elected to the Baseball Hall of Fame in 1936, Honus Wagner is widely regarded as the best shortstop to ever play the game. "The Flying Dutchman" won eight N.L. batting crowns - second only to Ty Cobb's 12 titles - during a 17-year stretch in which he batted over .300 in each season. Wagner came to Pittsburgh in 1900 after three seasons with Louisville, a franchise that had disbanded. He played with the Bucs until 1917 and ended his career with a .329 average and 101 homers. Wagner was a coach with the Pirates between 1933 and 1951. He ranks among the Pirates' top 10 in 11 offensive categories.

DANNY MURTAUGH

MANAGER

RETIRED 1977

Born, October 8, 1917 in Chester, PA, died December 2, 1976 in Chester. Threw and batted righthanded. A second baseman with the Phillies, Braves and Pirates (1941-43, 46-51), Danny Murtaugh was one of the most successful managers in Pirates history. He managed the Bucs in four different stints during 15 seasons between 1957 and 1976. During that time he became one of only 36 managers to win 1,000 games, compiling a record of 1,115-950, his win total ranking second on the Pirates all-time list to Fred Clarke's 1,422. He led the Pirates to five Eastern Division crowns and two World Series Championships (1960 and 1971). He was named The Sporting News Manager-of-the-Year in 1960 and 1970.

JACKIE ROBINSON

OUTFIELDER

RETIRED LEAGUE-WIDE IN 1997

Born January 31, 1919 in Cairo, GA, died October 24, 1972 in Stamford, CT. Threw and batted righthanded. Known forever as the first black player in the major leagues, Jack Roosevelt Robinson played for the Brooklyn Dodgers from 1947 to 1955, helping them to six pennants in a 10-year span and to their only World Championship in 1955. He was named the N.L. Rookie-of-the-Year in 1947 and the league's MVP in 1949. A six-time All-Star, Robinson also became the first man to integrate the Baseball Hall of Fame in 1962. In 1997, as a tribute to the legacy he created, Major League Baseball retired his number 42 league-wide on the 50th Anniversary of his breaking the game's color barrier. The Pirates officially retired his number in a pre-game ceremony on July 12, 1997.

DID YOU KNOW...

That Dick Groat was named the National League MVP in 1960 after leading the league in batting (.325) and knocking in 50 runs in 138 games for the World Champs. He also became the first right-handed Pirates hitter to win the batting title since Honus Wagner in 1911. From 1956 to 1962, Groat teamed with second baseman Bill Mazeroski to give Pittsburgh one of the game's strongest middle infielders; he led the N.L. in double plays a record five times, in putouts four times and in assists twice.

DEVELOPMENT

JOE DELLICARRI

Director of Amateur Scouting

Joe DelliCarri was promoted to Director of Amateur Scouting on September 16 after serving the organization as its Assistant Director of Scouting since November of 2006. He joined the Pirates scouting staff on November 7, 2005 and spent the 2006 season as the East Coast Supervisor.

Prior to joining the Pirates, DelliCarri spent 10 seasons in the New York Mets scouting department, working as a South Regional Supervisor (2001-2005) and an Area Supervisor (1996-2000).

Originally selected by the Mets in the 38th round of the 1989 June draft, Joe made his professional debut with St. Lucie that summer. He spent five seasons in the New York minor league system before being traded to Detroit on 2/17/94. An infielder during his playing days, DelliCarri retired following the players strike in 1995. He returned to the New York organization and served the Mets as their Double-A Hitting Coach at Binghamton during the '95 campaign before joining the scouting staff in 1996.

Joe was born on January 16, 1967 in Bronx, NY, and graduated from Bergen Catholic High School in Oradell, NJ. He received his bachelor's degree in Sociology of Law from the University of Pennsylvania. DelliCarri and his wife Cindy have three daughters; Allison (11), Julia (9) and Paige (7).

RENE GAYO

Director of Latin American Scouting

Rene Gayo is in his ninth season as a member of the Pirates Scouting department. In his role, he coordinates and supervises the club's International Scouts in attempts to sign players on the global level - with a heavy emphasis in Latin America.

Prior to joining the Pirates, Gayo spent five years (1999-2003) as the Director of International Scouting/Latin American Crosschecker with the Cleveland Indians. His tenure with the Tribe began in October of 1993 as an area scout, a position he held for eight seasons (1994-2000) mainly in South Texas and Louisiana. When his role on the international level began to expand during his tenure with the Indians, Rene was responsible for signing Rafael Perez, Willy Taveras, Edward Mujica, Dany's Baez, Jose Constanza and Jonny Peralta among others.

Gayo can also lay claim to signing current Pittsburgh prospects Starling Marte and Ramon Cabrera. Marte captured the Eastern League batting title as an outfielder with Altoona in 2011 and Cabrera won the Florida State League batting crown while catching with Bradenton in 2011.

Gayo played one season of professional baseball in the Cincinnati Reds organization as a catcher before turning his attention to scouting and player development. He served the Pirates as a part time scout for four years (1989-1992) and the Texas Rangers in 1993 before joining the Indians.

Rene is of Cuban descent and was born on 9/21/62 in Miami, FL. He was raised in Chicago and currently resides in Alvin, TX, with his wife of 23 years, Leticia, and son Manny (18). Gayo attended Gordon Technical High School in Chicago, IL, where he lettered in baseball, hockey and speech & debate before going on to earn an economics degree from St. Mary's University in San Antonio, TX. Rene also played baseball for two years at St. Mary's.

DEVELOPMENT STAFF

LARRY BROADWAY

Director of Minor League Operations

Larry Broadway is in his first season as Pittsburgh's Director of Minor League Operations, having been named to his current post on September 16, 2011. He was the organization's Area Scouting Supervisor the past two seasons, responsible for the four-corners area of the United States (AZ, CO, NM, UT, Las Vegas and El Paso TX).

In his new role, Larry will oversee the day-to-day minor league operations, including the club's six affiliates in the United States as well as two clubs in the Dominican Republic.

A graduate of Duke University, Broadway was selected by the Montreal Expos in the third round of the 2002 First-Year Player Draft and made his professional debut with the Vermont Expos that summer, homering in his first at bat. After hitting .295 at three different levels in 2003, Larry entered the '04 campaign ranked by Baseball America as the franchise's third-best prospect.

Broadway produced one of his finest offensive seasons in 2004, batting .270 and hitting a career-high 22 home runs and knocking in 72 runs with Double-A Harrisburg. For his efforts that season, he entered the 2005 campaign ranked by Baseball America as Washington's second-best prospect and as the Nationals' top hitting prospect by USA Today Sports Weekly.

In his eight minor league seasons (2002-09), Broadway compiled a .272 batting average, going 749-for-2744 with 166 doubles, 12 triples, 104 home runs and 413 RBI in 804 games. He was a member of the South Atlantic League All-Star team in 2003 and the Pacific Coast League All-Star team in 2006. His final season came in 2009 when he played at the Triple-A level within the Pittsburgh organization, making 69 appearances with Indianapolis.

In addition to making 711 appearances at first base, 23 in left field and four in right field during his professional playing career, Broadway recorded a 3.48 ERA (10.1ip/4er) in nine games as a pitcher. He posted a 2.70 ERA (6.2ip/2er) in five games with Triple-A Columbus in 2008 and a 4.91 ERA (3.2ip/2er) in four games with Indy in 2009.

Larry was born on December 17, 1980, in Miami, FL, and grew up in West Palm Beach. He currently resides in Bradenton, FL, with his wife Amanda. In 2009, Larry received the Pirates Community Commitment Award for his community service while playing with Triple-A Indianapolis.

The Dominican Summer League Pirates posted a 41-30 record but finished 5.5 games behind the front-running DSL Royals in the Boca Chica North Division of the Dominican Summer League. It was the sixth time in the last seven seasons in which the DSL Pirates were able to post a winning record.

Raul Fortunato provided the story of the season from late June until early August. The 20-year-old outfielder recorded a 36-game hitting streak that was not only the longest one in all of minor league baseball in 2011, but also the longest by a Pirates minor leaguer since at least 2005. Fortunato ended the season by garnering both DSL mid- and post-season honors while also finishing seventh in the league in hitting (.324), second in stolen bases (34), tied for second in runs scored (53) and fifth in hits (79) and total bases (120).

Two other members of the DSL Pirates were named to both the mid- and post-season All-Star team. Infielder Diego Goris finished second in the league with a .350 average. He also ranked first in hits (93) and total bases (136), tied for second in doubles (20) and runs scored (53), third in extra base hits (29) and fifth in slugging percentage (.511). Outfielder Jesus Vasquez was also named to both All-Star teams after ranking sixth in the league in hitting (.324), second in slugging percentage (.572) and extra base hits (32), tied for second in RBI (53), home runs (11) and doubles (20) and third in total bases (127).

Aneudy Merejo was named to the mid-season All-Star team and went on to finish fourth in the league in saves (14). Mervin Del Rosario paced the team with six wins.

The Venezuelan Summer League Pirates came within one win of winning the championship in their final season of play as a member of the league. The team posted a league-best 40-32 record before losing the third and deciding game of the championship series against the VSL Rays. Following the season the Pirates announced the organization would end its lease and not participate in the six-team league of which it had been a member since 2003. Beginning in 2012 the Pirates will have two entries in the Dominican Summer League.

The 2011 VSL Pirates had three players finish in the top 10 in hitting. Ulises Montilla finished second overall with a .364 average behind Tampa Bay's Oscar Hernandez, who finished with a .402 average. Montilla also finished second in the league in extra base hits (27), slugging percentage (.506) and total bases (128) and third in RBI (47) and OBP (.439). Edgard Munoz finished fourth in the league with a .360 average while ranking second in the circuit with a .464 OBP. Jose Roman rounded out the league's top 10 in batting average after hitting at a .317 clip. Dilson Herrera made his professional debut and tied for the league lead with five triples while also ranking third with 26 extra base hits.

Luis Ortiz paced the team with six wins, which was tied for the second-most in the league. Roberto Espinoza recorded 61 strikeouts, which ranked second in the league. He also finished with the fifth-lowest batting average against among starters (.251).

PNC PARK STATUE INFORMATION

Honus Wagner

The Honus Wagner statue has had three different "homes" since being dedicated on April 30, 1955. Originally, the Wagner statue was located in Schenley Park, close to the Pirates early home, Forbes Field. It was then moved to Three Rivers Stadium and erected outside Gate C on July 21, 1972.

The statue is now located at the home plate entrance to PNC Park. Honus Wagner's statue was sponsored by the Pittsburgh Professional Baseball Association as a lasting tribute to his character and abilities. Contributions to the statue fund were in amounts ranging from $1,000 to $1.00 and were received from thousands of individuals, organizations and foundations. Names of all contributors were then inscribed on one continuous roll and put in a stainless steel, hermetically-sealed tube before being placed inside the statue.

"No one player has ever brought more honor to the game of baseball than has Honus Wagner," said former Pirates President Bill Benswanger, who served as master of ceremonies at the original statue dedication in 1955.

Roberto Clemente

The Roberto Clemente statue was dedicated on July 8, 1994, to kick off All-Star Week in Pittsburgh. It was originally erected outside Gate A at Three Rivers Stadium and is now located outside the Center Field Gate to PNC Park, a few steps away from the Roberto Clemente Bridge.

The base of the statue is black granite and stainless steel with a diamond set in the center. Glass blocks represent first, second and third base. Beneath the glass is soil from Puerto Rico -- where Roberto first played the game -- Forbes Field and Three Rivers Stadium. The soil is marked as "hallowed ground," a place of transcendence where the past, present and future of baseball meet and to which each individual can bring his or her own memories.

Encircling the diamond and set in the stainless steel is a timeline of Clemente's life. Fifteen inscriptions run counter-clockwise around the diamond, beginning at homeplate and ending somewhere between third base and home. There is space for a 16th inscription, but it remains empty, a reflection of the incomplete circle of Roberto Clemente's life. Susan Wagner sculpted the 12-foot bronze statue of Clemente and L.D. Astorino & Associates, Ltd., served as the architect of the project.

Willie Stargell

On September 29, 2000, the Pirates announced that a statue of Willie Stargell would be unveiled at the club's new home, PNC Park. The announcement was made during the last weekend of Pittsburgh's final games at Three Rivers Stadium.

Stargell, however, did not live to see the day he would be forever immortalized at the statue unveiling on April 7, 2001. After not being able to attend the unveiling ceremony because of an illness, the Hall-of-Famer passed away in the early morning hours of April 9, the same day PNC Park officially opened its doors to begin a new era of Pirates baseball.

The 12-foot bronze statue stands along Federal Street at the entrance to left field at PNC Park. At the base of the statue is a quote from Stargell: "Last night, coming in from the airport, we came through the tunnel and the city opened up its arms and I felt at home." Also throughout the base of the statue are "Stargell stars," which the Pirates all-time home run leader handed out to his teammates toward the conclusion of his 21-year playing career with Pittsburgh.

GENERAL

Ralph Kiner

The Pirates unveiled a sculpture of Hall-of-Fame outfielder Ralph Kiner at PNC Park on April 7, 2003, as part of the club's opening day festivities. It is located behind the bleacher seats in left field, along the main level of the ballpark.

Kiner played for the Pirates for just seven seasons (1946-1952), but still ranks second on the club's all-time home run list behind Willie Stargell. He was inducted into the Baseball Hall of Fame in 1975 and had his No. 4 jersey retired by the Pirates in 1987. Kiner holds many club records and is still one of only three National League players to ever hit eight home runs in one week.

The club announced it would immortalize the former slugger in March of 2003. Kiner won or shared the National League home run title in each of his seven seasons with Pittsburgh, a streak still unmatched in either league. The hands and bat were sculpted by Susan Wagner, the artist who also designed the Clemente, Stargell, and Mazeroski statues.

Highmark Legacy Square

Highmark Legacy Square is a one-of-a-kind permanent interactive exhibit built to honor and preserve the history of the Negro Leagues (1920-1958) and the great players from the Homestead Grays and Pittsburgh Crawfords.

The exhibit is located inside the Left Field Gate Entrance at PNC Park, and is unlike anything else found in Major League Baseball. The multiple elements of the interactive experience share the inspiring story of the remarkable people who helped revolutionize the sports and business world in their own way.

The exhibit features life-size bronze statues of former Negro Leagues greats Cool Papa Bell, Oscar Charleston, Josh Gibson, Judy Johnson, Buck Leonard, Satchel Paige and Smokey Joe Williams. Each statue is accompanied by an interactive kiosk allowing fans to view a personal video and learn about the player's background, Hall of Fame honors and playing statistics.

The highlight of the exhibit is the Highmark Legacy Square Theatre, an indoor 25 seat movie theatre that presents the legacy of the Negro Leagues on many interactive levels. The film, which is narrated by Major League Baseball Hall of Famer and current ESPN personality Joe Morgan, is a blend of historical narrative, rare movie footage and first person interviews with journalist Mal Goode, local baseball legend Harold Tinker, Negro Leagues and Major League player Monte Irwin, Pittsburgh Crawfords player Clarence Bruce and Cumberland Posey's daughter, Oldie Posey Striblin.

Bill Mazeroski

As part of the 50th anniversary season of the 1960 World Series Championship, the Pirates announced plans on January 29, 2010, to erect a statue of Hall-of-Fame second baseman Bill Mazeroski.

The 12-foot bronze statue was officially unveiled on September 5, 2010, Mazeroski's birthday, and stands at the end of Mazeroski Way, which is located at the right field entrance to PNC Park. Susan Wagner, who sculpted the Clemente, Stargell and Kiner statues also produced this likeness of Maz.

Mazeroski remains the only player in Major League Baseball history to hit a game-winning home run in Game 7 of a World Series. His blast off New York's Ralph Terry on October 13, 1960, gave the Bucs a 10-9 victory in the deciding game played at Forbes Field in Pittsburgh.

Elected into the National Baseball Hall of Fame in 2001, the Pirates retired Mazeroski's uniform #9 in 1987. He was a seven-time All-Star and holds numerous Major League record for second basemen, including most seasons leading the league in assists (nine), most double plays in a single season (161 in 1966) and most career double plays (1,707).

BROADCASTING INFORMATION

GREG BROWN*Play-by-Play Announcer

Greg Brown is in his 19th season as a radio and television play-by-play announcer with the Pirates. At the conclusion of the 2012 season, only three other broadcasters in club history will have had more time behind the microphone than Brown.

Greg's association with the Pirates began in 1979, when he interned in the Promotions department while attending Point Park College. Following the World Series that year, Brown worked as the clubhouse manager during the Instructional League program in Bradenton, Florida. His 10-year stint in the Bucs front office included work in the Sales, Public Relations and Broadcasting departments. Greg also served as the team's public address announcer during the 1987 campaign. In 1988, he was a sports anchor on WFMJ-TV in Youngstown, OH.

Prior to joining Pittsburgh's broadcast team in 1994, Brown spent five seasons (1989-1993) doing play-by-play and color commentary for the Buffalo Bisons of the American Association (now International League) as well as hosting a sportstalk show on WGR Radio. He also worked as a color analyst and a pre- and post-game show host for the Buffalo Bills of the National Football League for five seasons (1989-93). Also during his time in Buffalo, Greg served as a play-by-play announcer for University of Buffalo basketball on WGR Radio and as a broadcaster for the Empire TV Sports Network.

Brown's dedication and passion for the Pirates extends to his efforts away from the broadcast booth as well. In addition to various off-season appearances in the community and his work on the annual Pirates caravan and PirateFest events, Greg spearheaded the "Gloves for Kids" program, which raised money for much-needed equipment and gloves for youth baseball and softball organizations in underserved areas around the Pittsburgh area. During the course of the season, Brown teams up with broadcast partner Steve Blass and hosts several pre-game receptions for members of the 65 Roses Club, which is part of the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation.

Brown is a native of Washington, D.C. He currently resides in Leet Township with his wife Kim and son Ryan (13).

TIM NEVERETT*Play-by-Play Announcer

Tim Neverett joined the Pittsburgh broadcast team on December 18, 2008 and is in his fourth season as a radio and television play-by-play announcer with the club.

Prior to joining the Pirates, Neverett spent four years working for FSN Rocky Mountain, where he spent the 2008 campaign serving as both the pre-game and post-game studio host for Colorado Rockies games. During his tenure with FSN Rocky Mountain, Tim also served as a play-by-play announcer for Rockies games, college football, basketball, hockey and lacrosse, as well as arena football and track and field.

Neverett was also one of the original play-by-play and studio voices for the mtm, The Mountain West Conference Sports Network, where he called a number of football and basketball games along with hosting a weekly roundtable studio show. In addition, Tim worked as a weekend talk show host for the nationally syndicated Sporting News Radio Network, where his show was heard on over 160 stations nationwide. He also served as a Sports Talk Host for ESPN 560 in Denver, Colorado, where he was named the 2005 Best Radio Sports-Talk Host by Westword magazine in its annual "Best of Denver" issue.

Neverett also called baseball, softball, basketball and soccer during the 2004 Athens Olympics and 2008 Beijing Olympics. During the 2002 Salt Lake City Olympics and 2006 Olympic Games in Torino he handled play-by-play duties for hockey and numerous skiing events. The multi-national feeds were seen in more than 100 countries.

Prior to his time in Denver, Neverett lived in Las Vegas, where he called games on radio and TV for the Padres and Dodgers Triple-A teams. He also served as the play-by-play voice for Las Vegas' International Hockey League team for five seasons, then added college baseball and football at UNLV to his duties.

Neverett began his baseball broadcasting career in 1985 with Pittsburgh's Double-A affiliate in the Eastern League. At the age of 19, he had the opportunity to fill in calling radio play-by-play of Nashua Pirates games, which led to more innings and ultimately a schedule of games that season.

Tim and his wife, Barbara, have three sons; Matthew (17), Kyle (15) and Drew (12). He is a graduate of Emerson College in Boston where he lettered in baseball for four seasons.

STEVE BLASS

Color Analyst

The 2012 season marks Steve Blass' 53rd year of involvement with the Pirates and his 27th behind the microphone as a color commentator. He has been associated with the club since signing his first professional contract on June 27, 1960.

For the eighth straight season, Steve will work only those games played at PNC Park. He will continue in his role as an analyst on both radio and TV. Only Lanny Frattare (33 years) and Bob Prince (28) have spent more years behind the microphone than Blass (26).

A right-handed pitcher, Blass made his professional debut with Kingsport in 1960 and his Major League debut with the Bucs on May 10, 1964. He joined the big league team permanently in 1966 and went on to pitch a total of 10 seasons in the Majors, compiling a 103-76 record, 57 complete games and 16 shutouts in 282 games (231 starts). Steve ranks seventh on the club's all-time list in strikeouts (896).

In his third full season in the Majors in 1968, Steve went 18-6, leading the league with a .750 winning percentage while posting a 2.12 ERA, 12 complete games and a career-high seven shutouts. His 2.12 ERA ranked fifth in the N.L. as St. Louis' Bob Gibson led the circuit with a 1.12 ERA.

During a five-year span from 1968 thru 1972, Blass was one of the best pitchers in the National League as he compiled a 78-44 record, 50 complete games and a 3.05 ERA. He won a career-high 19 games in 1972 and was named to the National League All-Star team that season.

In the 1971 World Series against the Baltimore Orioles, Blass recorded two complete game victories, allowing only seven hits and two runs in 18 innings of work. He finished second in the voting for World Series MVP behind teammate Roberto Clemente and remains the last National League pitcher to throw a complete game in Game Seven of a World Series.

After retiring following the 1974 season, Blass remained in the Pittsburgh area and worked in private business, while continuing to do community service for the ballclub.

In 1983, he worked with the legendary Hall of Fame broadcaster Bob Prince on Pirate cable telecasts and was also retained the following year when the cable rights were secured by Home Sports Entertainment. Blass officially joined the Pittsburgh Pirates radio broadcast crew in 1986.

A native of Canaan, CT, Steve and his wife Karen live in Upper St. Clair. They have two sons, David and Christopher, and five grandchildren. In 2002, Steve became the 13th recipient of the "Pride of the Pirates" award, a yearly honor (since 1990) which recognizes a member of the Pirates family who has demonstrated the qualities of sportsmanship, dedication and outstanding character during a lifetime of service.

On September 10, 2009, Steve defied the astronomical odds and recorded a pair of holes-in-one in the same round of golf. According to Golf Digest, the odds of a golfer making two aces in the same round are one in 67 million.

BOB WALK

Color Analyst

Bob Walk is in his 19th season as a member of the Pirates broadcast crew. He joins Greg Brown as being one of only six men with at least 15 years of service behind the microphone for the Bucs on radio.

The former right-handed pitcher spent 10 of his 14 years pitching in the Major Leagues with Pittsburgh (1984-1993). He compiled a 105-81 lifetime record, which included an 82-61 mark with the Pirates.

Walk's professional career began with Spartanburg in 1977 after he was drafted by the Philadelphia Phillies in the 3rd round of the 1976 June draft. He made his big league debut with the Phillies in 1980 and was the starting pitcher in Game One of the World Series that October against Kansas City.

In the spring of 1981, Walk was dealt to the Atlanta Braves for outfielder Gary Matthews. He spent three seasons in the Atlanta organization before being acquired by Pittsburgh in 1984.

Bob was a 1988 National League All-Star and he posted six straight winning seasons from 1987 to 1992. One of his finest moments in a Pirates uniform came in 1992 when he pitched a 7-1, complete-game victory over the Atlanta Braves in Game Five of the National League Championship Series.

Walk, a native of Newhall, CA, resides in Wexford with his wife Lorrie. They have three sons; Tommy (32), Johnny (29) and Ronny (22). Tommy and his wife, Dominique, are the proud parents of daughters Makayla (9) and Kylie (6).

JOHN WEHNER

Color Analyst

Pittsburgh native John Wehner joined the Pirates broadcast team prior to the 2005 season. He serves as an analyst on both radio and TV, working all road games and a handful of games played at PNC Park in Pittsburgh.

Entering the 2012 campaign, John has spent a total of 21 seasons in the Pittsburgh organization (1988-1996, 1999-2001 and 2003-2011). Prior to being named to the broadcast team, John spent time as a coach with the Double-A Altoona Curve (2002-2004) after serving the Pirates as a special instructor during spring training in 2002.

He saw his last action in the Major Leagues with the Pirates in 2001. He hit the last home run in the history of Three Rivers Stadium on October 1, 2000 off Chicago's Jon Lieber and also made the final out. In 11 seasons in the Major Leagues, John compiled a .249 batting average, hit four home runs and collected 54 RBI in 461 games. In addition, he shares the Major League record of playing 99 consecutive errorless games at third base (also Jeff Cirillo).

Wehner is a graduate of Pittsburgh's Carrick High School and attended the University of Indiana, where he played baseball for three years. He resides in Cranberry Township, PA, and has four children; sons Tyler (20) and Brandon (18) and daughters Hailey (13) and Hannah (9).

John Wehner hitting the final home run at Three Rivers Stadium

HOW TO FIGURE

BATTING AVERAGE: Divide the number of hits by the number of at bats.

EARNED RUN AVERAGE: Multiply the number of earned runs by nine and then divide that number by the number of innings pitched.

FIELDING AVERAGE: Divide the total putouts and assists by the total of putouts, assists and errors.

MAGIC NUMBERS: Determine the number of games yet to be played, add one, then subtract the number of games ahead in the loss column of the standings from the closest opponent.

ON-BASE PERCENTAGE: Add the total of hits, walks, hit by pitches and divide by the total of at bats, walks, hit by pitches and sacrifice flies.

SLUGGING AVERAGE: Divide the total bases of all safe hits by the total times at bat (at-bats do not include walks, sacrifices, hit-by-pitch, or times awarded first base because of interference or obstruction).

WINNING PERCENTAGE: Divide the number of games won by the total games won and lost.

QUALIFICATIONS FOR BATTING CHAMPIONSHIP: Highest batting average based on a minimum of 502 plate appearances, the equivalent of 3.1 appearances for each of the 162 scheduled games, which may include walks, sacrifices, hit by pitch, etc.

QUALIFICATIONS FOR PITCHING (ERA) CHAMPIONSHIP: Lowest earned run average with a minimum of 162 innings pitched.

QUALIFICATIONS FOR A FIELDING CHAMPIONSHIP: The fielders with the highest fielding average at each position, provided:

- (1) A catcher participates as a catcher in at least one-half the number of games scheduled for each club in his league that season.
- (2) An infielder or outfielder must have participated at his position in at least two-thirds of the number of games scheduled for each club in his league that season.
- (3) A pitcher must have pitched at least as many innings as the number of games scheduled for each club in his league that season. EXCEPTION: if another pitcher has a fielding average as high or higher, and has handled more total chances in a lesser number of innings, he shall be the fielding champion.

NOTE: These figures DO NOT determine Rawlings Gold Glove winners at the end of the season.

Those are selected by a vote of managers and coaches.

QUALIFICATIONS FOR A ROOKIE: A player with no more than 130 at bats or 50 innings pitched in the Major Leagues during the previous season or seasons, nor more than 45 days on a Major League roster during the 25-man player limit (excluding time in military service).

PINCH HITTING: A player shall be considered a pinch-hitter only if he enters the game as a substitute batter and then only on his first time at bat, which must be before he becomes a fielder. If the team bats around in the inning and a pinch hitter comes up a second time, he will not be considered a pinch hitter the second time.

CONSECUTIVE HITTING STREAKS: A consecutive hitting streak shall not be terminated if the plate appearance results in a base on balls, hit batsman, defensive interference or a sacrifice bunt. A sacrifice fly shall terminate the streak.

CONSECUTIVE-GAME HITTING STREAKS: A consecutive-game hitting streak shall not be terminated if all the player's plate appearances (one or more) result in a base on balls, hit batsman, defensive interference or a sacrifice bunt. The streak shall terminate if the player has a sacrifice fly and no hit. The player's individual consecutive-game hitting streak shall be determined by the consecutive games in which the player appears and is not determined by his club's games.

CONSECUTIVE-GAME PLAYING STREAK: A consecutive-game playing streak shall be extended if the player plays one-half inning on defense, or if he completes a time at bat by reaching base or being put out. A pinch-running appearance only shall not extend the streak. If a player is ejected from a game by an umpire before he can comply with the requirements of this rule, his streak shall continue.

DETERMINING GAMES AHEAD/BEHIND: Subtract the team's wins from the first place club's wins and subtract the first place club's losses from the team's losses. Add the results and divide by two.
